Canadian Press

BRUHN SECURES BETTER TERMS ON RELIEF AID

Senator Robertson Agrees to Amend British Columbia Programme

Limited Number of Urban Men to Get Four Months' Work on Highways

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—An understanding has been reached between Senator G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor, and Hon. R. W. Bruhn, Minister of Public Works of British Columbia, which, if approved by the Dominion Cabinet, will permit the provincial highways programme to continue "to a reasonable extent" for a further period of about four months.

This was the substance of a brief joint statement issued by Senator Robertson and Mr. Bruhn at the conclusion of a conference this morning. It was stated the men employed would give place to a somewhat smaller number, drawn particularly from the urban districts, who have not heretofore had much employment on the highway project.

Mr. Bruhn has been in Ottawa for some days, and has interviewed Senator Robertson and Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce. It is understood he will leave for the west this afternoon or evening.

King Reads Speech at Formal Start of Session; Premier Tells Commons Government Will Call For Legislation Outlined in Election Manifesto

By GEORGE HAMBLETON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
London, Nov. 10.—In the great chamber of the House of Lords, glowing with scarlet, gold and precious stones, the King to-day officially opened the first session of the new Parliament of Great Britain.

The day began with showers of rain, but along the whole route from Buckingham Palace to Westminster, great crowds lined the road cheering as His Majesty passed by, and as the King, accompanied by the Queen, entered the chamber of the House of Lords they faced a scene of splendor. Uniformed ambassadors were grouped on the right and the centre of the floor was so packed with peers that two former Viceroy of India, Lord Irwin and Lord Reading, only with difficulty found seats. Along either side of the chamber the wives of the peers sat wearing royal robes in diamonds and other costly jewels.

In the galleries the princes of India who are attending the Round-Table Conference splashed notes of Oriental color. The Maharajah of Jodhpur wore a long coat richly embroidered with gold. The Maharajah of Baroda, a sari of deep rose was a keen observer of the scenes of Occidental splendor.

CITY FAVORS HOSPITAL AREA

Municipal Representatives to Again Discuss Situation

Endorsement of the proposal to create a hospital area for administration of the Royal Jubilee Hospital was given by the City Council this morning, meeting as a committee of the whole. The main question being in regard to apportionment of costs.

The city is the last of the four municipal governments to express an opinion on the plan. Oak Bay is partially in favor and both Saanich and Esquimalt are opposed to the idea.

On Friday night at the hospital representatives of the city and the three municipalities will meet again to discuss the whole situation and attempt to arrive at a settlement satisfactory to everyone.

Government Favors Beautifying District Near Capital City

Strong Delegation This Morning Assured of Government's Sympathy Towards Creation of Capital City Improvement Commission; Developments as Relief Works Depend Upon Ottawa's Action on Provincial Relief Programme, Premier Tolmie States; Improvements Seen as Aid to Profitable Tourist Traffic

Announcement by Premier Tolmie that the government of British Columbia is sympathetic towards limited improvement of Greater Victoria on lines similar to that in effect at Ottawa, as a means of attracting tourists from the United States, coupled with the comment that "you cannot get tourist business by mail, you must go after it," featured an interview given the Capital City Beautification Committee this morning by the provincial cabinet.

An influential delegation headed by Alfred Carmichael advocated legislation setting up of a Capital City Improvement Commission and suggested that the whole situation and attempt to make as a part of the provincial unemployment relief programme.

Robbers In Toronto Escape With Payroll

Toronto, Nov. 10.—Jumping on Stanley Jones, twenty-nine, cashier of the Bredin Bread Company, as he was carrying the firm's payroll, three men knocked him down, got hold of the roll, which contained between $2,400 and $2,500, and made their escape in a motor car early this afternoon. The hold-up was carried out on Spadina Avenue.

ONE OF NINE ON TRIAL FREED

M. Golinski Released at Toronto; Eight Others Still Before Court

Toronto, Nov. 10.—Mike Golinski, one of the nine alleged Communists on trial here, was discharged by Mr. Justice Wright to-day at the request of Norman Somerville, prosecutor. Mr. Somerville said there was insufficient evidence against Golinski to proceed further with the case against him.

The trial of the eight other defendants on charges of being and acting as members of an unlawful association and being parties to a seditious conspiracy continued.

Toronto, Nov. 10.—Amos T. Hill, one of the accused, was on the witness stand for cross-examination when the trial of nine alleged Communists was resumed here this forenoon.

Norman Somerville, K.C., prosecutor, questioned the witness. He identified a letter from Sam Carr or Cohen, asking for the return of the "Visilev" pamphlet, which Hill had borrowed. The pamphlet has been extensively quoted throughout the trial, advocating as it does the formation of "proletarian self-defence units" to defend Communist demonstrations.

MUMBLINGS IN COLUMBIA

Hasty Election Call and Choice of Conservative Candidate Resented

Many Government Road Camp Workers May Cast By-election Ballots

An unusually heavy vote and a whirlwind contest in which Premier Tolmie will rally to the support of the Conservative candidate and T. D. Pattullo, Liberal leader, will invade the riding to help the Liberal nominee, is forecast in the Columbia by-election to fill the seat made vacant by the death of John A. Buckham, a former member of the B.C. Legislature.

Brisk registration under the amendment to the Elections Act, which provides for a special registration of the voters' list thirty days prior to an election, indicates there will be a much larger vote than at the last provincial general election when John A. Buckham, carrying the Liberal colors, was returned with 650 votes against 627 secured by E. J. Scovil, the Conservative nominee. Running as an independent, Mrs. G. E. Cross secured twenty-six votes.

Reports from the riding state some resentment has been stirred by the haste with which the election was called following Mr. Buckham's death. There is also mumbling among Conservatives at the announcement of the candidature of P. W. Jones. The date of the Conservative convention was given as November 18, but before the convention had been given the opportunity to consider the name of other aspirants the fact has been announced in Victoria by Premier Tolmie on receipt of advice from Golden that Mr. Jones was the Conservative choice.

Presence of extra men in the riding will swell the voters' list. Many men from outside parties are working at government road camps in various parts of the district and it is thought they will be entitled to vote for the first and only time in their lives in the riding in which they are temporarily residing.

SCULLIN IS FOR EARLY EMPIRE CONFERENCE

Australian Premier Suggests Gathering at Ottawa Soon as Possible

Premier MacDonald Says Thomas Will Tour Dominions Before July Assembly

Canadian Press Cable via Reuters
Canberra, Australia, Nov. 10.—Premier Scullin to-day voiced the feeling of himself and his government that the forthcoming Empire Economic Conference at Ottawa should be held as soon as possible.

"There should be no unnecessary delay," he said at the conclusion of a cabinet meeting. "We see no reason why the conference should not be held early in the new year."

In the address he delivered at the annual Lord Mayor's banquet in London yesterday evening, Premier MacDonald, giving a definite assurance the National Government intended accepting the proposal of the Canadian government for an Empire Economic Conference in Ottawa, said he doubted if it would be possible to hold the conference before July, 1932.

London, Nov. 10.—The date had been mentioned to-day for the departure of Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Secretary of State for Dominions in the National Government, who will tour the Dominions prior to the holding of an Empire Economic Conference in Ottawa, probably next July.

In some circles it is suggested Mr. Thomas will leave around the middle of December, while other observers see a mass of parliamentary business demanding his attention which may delay his departure until after the new year.

The absence of any statement by the cabinet regarding the order in which it will tackle the urgent problems which lie before it makes it difficult for uninformed circles to guess at the probable time Mr. Thomas will be able to leave. It is thought Parliament will first put its mind to anti-dumping measures to protect British manufacturers and British internal trade.

FIRST SCOTTISH V.C. IN TOWN

Donald McKenzie of Inverness Won Award at First Battle of Ypres

The first Scotsman to win a V.C. in the World War, Donald McKenzie, arrived in Victoria this morning from Seattle on a tour of the North American continent. Mr. McKenzie, whose home is in Inverness, Scotland, does not plan to return until the spring. He is at present staying at the Metropole Hotel.

At the outbreak of the war he joined the Royal Scots Fusiliers. At the first Battle of Ypres, 1915, he was a machine gun sergeant and in the face of great peril managed to save a detachment of heavy guns from being captured. For this he was awarded the Victoria Cross. At demobilization Mr. McKenzie held the rank of captain.

The Liberal representative will be nominated on November 13. Thomas King and William McRae of Golden; John Blakely of Radium Hot Springs; and Frank Stockdale of Inverness are mentioned as prospective candidates.

CONFERENCE FOR PROSPERITY IN WINNIPEG URGED

Toronto, Nov. 10.—Suggestion delegations of business men from eastern and western Canada meet in conference at Winnipeg, "proclaiming the bright side of the economic picture," is advanced by Mayor W. J. Stewart of Toronto. Such a conference, he says, could be held under the auspices of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce or the Toronto Board of Trade.

The gathering, he believes, would give "all parts of the east and the west the true picture that warrants our faith in Canada."

CITY CLERK OF VANCOUVER IS IN HOSPITAL

Vancouver, Nov. 10.—City Clerk Charles Jones, who has been absent from City Hall for several days because of illness, was admitted to the General Hospital Monday.

Mr. Jones was at Harrison Hot Springs for treatment, but on his return to the city was ordered to the hospital for further attention.

Eighteen Candidates Now Listed Seeking Civic Offices Here

Ratepayers Name Nine to Contest All Seats, With Two More to Be Chosen; Williams May Yet Run for Mayor; Dr. S. F. Miles in Running for Police Board; Anscomb's Decision Expected in Week

Ten more candidates were on the list this morning of those seeking offices at the civic election in December, bringing the total to eighteen for the eleven vacant seats.

Nine of the new candidates are on the slate nominated by the Victoria Ratepayers' Association and the other nine are individuals. One of the returned men, with Major P. T. Stern, is Dr. Stanley F. Miles who will stand for election to the Police Commission. The ratepayers' group has still to name two more candidates, one for the City Council and the other for the School Board.

Nomination of two aldermanic aspirants by the Trades and Labor Council was deferred until next Wednesday following a meeting yesterday evening when two names were proposed but later withdrawn.

The ratepayers' slate, committed to an economy programme which includes a change in the constitution of the council, lower taxes, reduction of stipends for the mayor and council and a referendum on the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau grant, was chosen by a special committee.

As announced in The Times last week, Frank LeRoy, president of the association, is the choice for the mayoralty. The four aldermanic candidates already named are: Capt. Burgess J. Gladstone, merchant; John Hall, retired printer, and former alderman; Adolph Lancaster, clothing merchant; and J. H. McConnell, of Sweeney and McConnell, job printers. For School Board the association named Mrs. Julia de Blaquiere, a large property owner, who was identified (Concluded on Page 2)

WAR DEAD TO BE HONORED

City to Pay Tribute to the Memory of Heroic Dead at Ceremony To-morrow

In solemn tribute to the memory of her heroic dead, Victoria will observe Remembrance Day with a special ceremony at the base of the War Memorial in the Parliament Building square to-morrow morning.

Former comrades, provincial and divisional military and naval organizations, patriotic bodies and the citizens at large will assemble at the grounds, following a parade, to turn their thoughts once again to the sacrifice of those who fell in the Great War.

Assembling on Wharf Street, behind the Post Office, at 10.15 o'clock, veterans, naval and military detachments and a squad of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will form up in parade order, headed by the Fifth B.C. Coast Brigade and Sixteenth Canadian Scottish bands. Lieutenant-General Sir Percy Lake will be in command of the returned men, with Major P. T. Stern assisting him. Permission has been granted by Brigadier-General J. Sutherland Brown, district officer commanding M.E.D. No. 11, to the veterans to wear uniforms. They have been requested to wear their decorations.

The column will march to the War Memorial, where they will have special places allotted to them. Grouped about the memorial will be standard bearers of the I.O.G.E., representatives of the Alliance Francaise, Girl Guides, Sea Cadets and Boy Scouts. (Concluded on Page 2)

NO TIMES TO-MORROW

As a tribute to the memory of the Canadians and their allies who fell in the Great War and a mark of honor to those who shared in the conflict without making the supreme sacrifice, The Times will issue no edition to-morrow.

CHINA MAKES STRONG APPEAL TO LEAGUE AS TROOPS MASS

anti-Japanese sentiment has been growing.

CHEN'S PLAN

Tokio, Nov. 10.—A proposal for complete reorganization of the government of Manchuria, made by Eugene Chen, noted Chinese journalist and statesman, today turned the attention of the Chinese government to the League of Nations, in the hope of a possible permanent solution of the knotty Manchuria problem.

The proposal, said to have been formulated by the opposition government at Canton, was given to the Japanese consul in Canton by Mr. Chen before he left for Shanghai to discuss with the Japanese government the reorganization of the Manchurian Nationalist government.

The plan calls for closer co-operation with Japan and expulsion from Manchuria of "greedy and meddling war lords," together with appointment of a high commissioner by the central government who would take charge of Manchurian affairs.

TROOPS TO REMAIN

Japanese military forces would be permitted to remain and Japan would be largely responsible for maintaining peace and order. It was stated authoritatively here that Tokyo's hopes in this direction, far distant and rather slender though they are, are based on plans for Eugene Chen to play a prominent role in reorganization of the Nanking government and to secure an agreement with Canton's policy of close co-operation with Japan in management of Manchurian affairs.

With reference to the Cantonese proposals, the Japanese government has contended from the beginning that Manchuria was not a third party affair and that the two nations would be better left to themselves to reach a permanent settlement on the long drawn out difficulties of which Geneva has only the roughest grasp.

NOTE SENT

Tokio, Nov. 10.—Japan's reply to the "side government" of the United States Government on the Manchurian conflict was dispatched to Washington today.

Official dispatches from Manchuria received in Tokyo denied General Ma's report that he had been ordered to leave Manchuria and that he had been ordered to leave Manchuria.

WOMEN WHO ROBBED GIRL ARE HUNTED

Vancouver Young Woman Reports She Was Kidnapped and Wristwatch Taken

Vancouver, Nov. 10.—Police today were searching for two women accused of kidnapping and an attempt to extort ransom. They were acting on a complaint from Miss Edith Wright, twenty, of West First Avenue.

Employed by the Willard Equipment Co., Bench Avenue, Miss Wright left her office at 5:45 yesterday evening to walk to Granville Street. Within 100 yards she was accosted by two women in a large car who asked questions regarding location of streets.

The women demanded Miss Wright's wristwatch and a $50 or $100 ransom for its return. She refused to pay.

She stated she knew no one from whom she could raise the money, they argued about it and drove to Maillardville, two and a half miles above New Westminster.

Near Maillardville, the women ordered her out of the car after robbing her of $7 and a wrist watch. She walked to New Westminster, where she telephoned to her parents. She told her story to Vancouver police after she had been returned to her home, shortly before 9 p.m.

standpoint and those whose view was more for the practical phase.

There was no confirmation of the report that the Chinese General Ma Chan-shan had issued a declaration of war on his own initiative and League authorities and experts in international law insisted neither he nor any other leader would act army might declare war, although he might wage it in the most dreadful form.

Only governments, the experts said, had the right to declare war. They added that both the Nanking and Tokyo governments had had it clear they had no notion of going to war with Japan.

He insisted, could certainly never recognize a status of hostilities which no government was willing to accept. "Do not call it war and maybe it is not," the practical notion was: "It is war. Let us stop it."

WAR DEAD TO BE HONORED

At 10:45 o'clock the ceremony will be opened with the singing of "O Canada." This will be followed by a prayer by Rev. P. C. Chapman, chaplain of the forces.

The Last Post will be played and two minutes' silence observed.

This will be broken by the bugles sounding the "Reveille."

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor will lay a poppy wreath at the base of the memorial. Others will be placed there by Rev. P. C. Chapman, the Bishop of Columbia, a representative of the Ministerial Association, Mayor Anscomb, the Senior Naval Officer, the District Officer Commanding and a representative of the Chinese community.

The Community Cross will then be placed along with the other tokens and the gathering will join in the singing of "At the Feet of the Cross."

Following the singing of "God Save the King," ex-service men and their families, the I.O.D.E. and the general public will place their wreaths.

On Friday night at the Chamber of Commerce a meeting of the association will hold a mass meeting to ratify these candidates and start the campaign in earnest.

REFUSED SUPPORT

Choice of the police commission candidates, between the retiring office holder, Andrew McGavin and Mr. Powell, Mr. McGavin, it is reported, refused to support the platform of the association and his name was withdrawn.

Mr. McGavin explained today he did not wish to be tied down to any platform and wished to use his own judgment. He did not state directly whether he would seek re-election.

Mr. LeRoy was selected over Alderman R. T. Williams to contest the election of Mayor and Council, the morning stated, however, that he did not wish it understood that he "stood aside" to allow Mr. LeRoy to take the nomination. On the question as to whether he would run independently as a candidate for the seat, he was silent, neither denying or confirming the former announcement that he would stand.

With the ratifiers' slate announced, the main point of interest in the election campaign now rests on the decision of Mayor and Council, it was indirectly learned by The Times today that the Mayor's announcement one way or the other may be expected within one week.

CANADA TAKES ITS ONE PER CENT TAX OFF LUMBER

Bennett Cabinet Found U.S. Countervailing Duty Was in Force

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—The special excise tax on lumber imported into Canada has been lifted on certain imported boards, planks and deals, according to a memorandum issued by the Department of National Revenue. The exemption of the excise tax on this class of lumber is made retroactive to June 2 last.

The lumber deals with in the order come chiefly from the United States, the tax being in addition to the regular tariff.

With the exemption of the tax dated back to June 2 it is understood Washington will also make an order retroactive to the same date, taking off its additional import.

U.S. ACTION
Washington, Nov. 10.—The Canadian government's action in rescinding its special excise tax on certain classes of lumber imported from the United States has been met with an amicable readjustment of reciprocal duties imposed by the United States on similar Canadian products.

At the time the Canadian government established the excise tax, it apparently was not realized the action automatically brought into effect a reciprocal United States tariff provision which would have charged one dollar per thousand feet. Officials estimate this tax might have amounted June 2 till now between $200,000 and $250,000.

GOVERNMENT FAVORS BEAUTIFYING DISTRICT NEAR CAPITAL CITY

Mr. Carmichael said the delegation had been instructed to advocate creation by the Legislature of a Capital City Improvement Commission, the members to serve without pay, their terms to include Victoria City, Oak Bay, Saanich Peninsula, Esquimalt, Sooke and Malahat districts.

As a second point the delegation sought inception of certain works as early as possible.

The delegation was introduced by Reginald Hayward, M.P.P., who said that the representations to be made were the fruit of several years of work for the development of the district as a capital area, similar to the Ottawa system. It was the view of the delegation that legislation could be introduced at the next session of the Legislature. It might not be practicable to provide much money next year, but an immediate start could be made by including certain works in the provincial unemployment scheme.

Alfred Carmichael said the Capital City Beautification Committee included aldermen, members of the Legislature, representatives of business, industry, men's organizations, the Victoria Island Publicity Bureau, Chamber of Commerce, Real Estate Board and many other organizations of southern Vancouver Island.

STRESS LEGISLATION
F. B. Pemberton said the main thing was to get legislation passed to create the proposed improvement district. All present realized that at this time no big grant could be expected from the government, but it was believed that some of the unemployment relief money could well be used on the scheme outlined.

Mount Douglas was now hard to climb for all but young people, but a spiral road would make accessible the scenic scenery, unexplored anywhere else. Such a work could well be carried out by a commission concerned with beautifying the capital city.

Mr. Thomas Walker presented a contour map of Mount Douglas to show the feasibility of the project. Such a terminus to Memorial Avenue would end the charge that the avenue had no terminal point and that the road was a better memorial to the war dead than the present one.

Alderman W. T. Strath said the proposed beautification was based on the one in Ottawa. The only aid sought was to enable the beauties given by Nature to be made accessible to visitors and to the public. The project was not a charge that the avenue had no terminal point and that the road was a better memorial to the war dead than the present one.

MINISTERS INQUIRE
Hon. S. H. Lowe, Provincial Secretary, asked if the project was included in the project of the government to make a better memorial to the war dead than the present one.

Hon. J. H. Thomas, Secretary of State for the Colonies, said that the project was included in the project of the government to make a better memorial to the war dead than the present one.

Viscount Shibusawa, Business Leader Of Japan, Dies at Tokio

Tokio, Nov. 11.—Viscount Shibusawa, Japan's "grand old man" of business, died today at his home.

He was ninety-one years old, but until a few years ago still was one of the country's most active business men. The people called him "the people's foreign minister," because he made so many trips to the United States, especially when the Japanese immigration question was under discussion.

There was a premature report of his death yesterday.

On the right also sat the Prime Minister.

On the steps to the left a peer bore the Cap of Maintenance. Around about were ranged officers of the royal household.

MOVE TO DRAW RUSSIA INTO BIG CONFLICT REPORTED

Associated Press
Moscow, Nov. 10.—The Tass News agency today received a message from Khabarovsk, Eastern Siberia, saying a Japanese newspaper editor attached to the Japanese military mission at Harbin, Manchuria, had made proposals to groups of "White" Russians to provoke a conflict with the Soviet Government and draw Russia into the Manchurian conflict.

There was no confirmation of the report. The editor was said to have invited the "White" Russian General Kosmin, in behalf of the Japanese mission, to organize an attack against the Chinese Eastern Railway and to arrest several prominent Soviet officials of the road, including the Russian consul and the manager.

He was reported to have promised money, arms and ammunition to aid the proposed coup.

TWO KILLED IN GERMAN CLASHES

Berlin, Nov. 10.—Clashes between political opponents in which two were killed marked the close of the thirtieth anniversary celebration of the German republic.

National Socialists and members of the Republican Reichsbanner fought in Bremen, with one man killed, eight severely wounded and sixty arrested as a result.

The other fatality occurred in Eutin, near Hamburg, when National Socialists attacked Republicans who were parading in the market square. Fifteen were injured.

FIRE DESTROYS BARN AND CATTLE

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 10.—Fire wiped out a barn owned by Alex Quinn of North Hallowell yesterday evening and led to the pyromaniac who terrorized Wentworth County farmers a few weeks ago had returned to this district. Along with the barn, thirty-two head of purebred Holstein cattle and five horses were destroyed. The total loss is estimated at $22,000.

Mexico Soon May Scrap Its Navy

Associated Press
Mexico City, Nov. 10.—Mexico may abandon its navy under an efficiency programme soon to be put into effect by Secretary of War Calles.

Preliminary reports on the programme, which will be announced in January, were made yesterday and they indicate General Calles is dissatisfied with the naval and aviation units of the national defence system and feels that unless they can be put on an efficient basis they should be abandoned.

The present navy consists of a half-dozen cruisers and some old-fashioned gunboats, purchased at different times from various nations.

Some reductions and reorganization of the infantry, cavalry and artillery units likewise is expected in the interest of economy and efficiency.

COAST BUILDING TURNS UPWARD

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—October building permits received from twenty-five leading Pacific Coast cities show an improvement of $894,448 or 9.4 per cent over September, indicating a general improvement in business throughout the entire Coast, according to a comprehensive survey prepared by California Mutual Building and Loan Association yesterday.

These twenty-five cities were the leaders of seventy reporting. Building permits totaled $9,315,968 for October as compared with $8,421,217 in September of this year for the leading twenty-five cities, while October of 1930 permits totaled $15,724,743.

The tabulation shows Oakland as having made the greatest gain of any Pacific Coast city. October permits totaled $910,598, which was $460,218 more than the previous month and $415,269 above the like month of 1930.

TRAFFIC CONTROL SET WEEK AHEAD

Philadelphia, Nov. 10.—Automobiles moving up, down and across Broad Street now have their destinies determined a week in advance by a programme clock in the City Hall. The clock is the guiding "brain" of a new traffic control system recently installed in Philadelphia by General Electric. The system itself is designed to sense the traffic requirements of the city and govern itself accordingly. The clock can be set a week in advance to take care of the traffic for each individual day and for the particular demands of each hour in the day. A sample day for the traffic control system would include a long period for the morning downtown rush, after which the clock would be set for the midday downtown rush. During the day the special demands of a parade, baseball game, or other function are scheduled, while at night the rush is upturned. Business over for the day, the control is set for the theatre traffic. In the event of a fire or accident, the traffic director can interrupt the programme and manipulate the lights for any locality. It is possible to sidetrack traffic on Broad Street and stop completely the flow toward the danger point. Traffic policemen can take over the control at any intersection without disturbing the rest of the system, and it is automatically thrown back in perfect time afterwards. Should an accident damage the City Hall controls, the system will continue to operate satisfactorily on the cycle last used. Philadelphia is the first city to use the system.

France to Get Wheat From Yugoslavia

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Nov. 10.—France has signed an agreement to purchase 10 per cent of her requirements of grain from Yugoslavia. It was announced. The grain to be purchased in Yugoslavia amounts to 15,000 carloads.

NEURITIS HAS GONE!

Banished by Kruschen.
"I had acute neuritis in the shoulder and left arm, due to exposure in bad weather," writes the Rev. H. E. T. "It was impossible to lift the arm to dress or to use it in any way, and, of course, the pain was dreadful. All external applications were useless. I got it completely normal again by keeping the parts affected warm and taking daily, early in the morning, Kruschen Salts in a tumbler of hot water. It took nearly a month, but every vestige of neuritis has gone."

Neuritis is typical of a dozen other complaints—some minor, some very serious—which all result from impurities in the blood. And it is impure blood, circulating all over the system and setting up inflammation in the tissues, that causes those excruciating pains.

Kruschen Salts can be safely trusted to set the matter right. Because Kruschen contains just what Nature needs to persuade your internal organs back into a healthy, normal condition. (Adv.)

CONFUSION IS ELECTION RESULT

But Democrats in U.S. House Will Ignore Any Hoover Suggestion of Truce

By Ken Clark, Canadian Press Staff Writer.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Democrats almost certainly will have control of the House of Representatives when Congress convenes December 7. The death of Harry Wursbach, only Republican member from Texas, and his replacement by a Democrat will give that party 218 seats. The Republicans, if they win two forthcoming by-elections can muster only 216. There will be one Farmer-Labor member.

The report that President Hoover, with Democratic control of the House, will ask for a parliamentary armistice to extend over the economic crisis is given credence but received with smiles. The Democrats will not act with Mr. Hoover unless it can be demonstrated the country is faced with an emergency rather than a crisis as described at the White House as "second only to war."

ONLY A GLANCING BLOW
Results of last week's elections, while they gave Democrats control of the House and delivered a glancing blow to the administration, are now considered in Washington as of much less importance than was indicated by the Democratic press in the excitement of victory. It is pointed out by Walter Lippman in The Herald-Tribune of New York and by Frank R. Kent of The Baltimore Sun that the Democrats are always stronger in state elections than in national elections. Mr. Kent goes on to say Democrats are disturbed as to what they ought to do now that they have control of the House. Lacking a coherent platform and outstanding leadership.

It is obvious nothing drastic is going to be attempted in the way of tariff revision. A Presidential veto would carry enough weight to stop that, even if the Democrats could agree on what variety of products should be let in to the country under reduced rates.

FIVE DIE AS RESULT OF CRASH

Morristown, Pa., Nov. 10.—Five persons, four of them members of the same family, were killed, and two others were seriously injured yesterday when a heavy express truck collided with their automobile near here. Those killed were: Peter Polnik, fifty; his wife, Anna, forty-nine; their two children, Harry, seventeen, and Stephen, four; and Edgewater, N.J., and Stephen Lucash, seventeen, of Union City, N.J.

All were passengers in an automobile driven by George Roden, twenty-two, of Union City. Roden and his wife, Anna, twenty-two, a daughter of the Polniks, were injured. The driver of the truck, James Lamb, escaped injury. He was arrested pending the outcome of an investigation.

Seven hours after the accident, Mrs. Roden gave birth to a baby boy in a hospital here. Physicians said the birth had been hastened by the injuries to the mother and they did not expect either to live.

Indianapolis, Nov. 10.—Leo H. Rouse of New York has been elected vice-president of the International Typographical Union in succession to Theodore Perry, who died recently according to an announcement at union headquarters here.

FIVE QUEBEC WORKERS KILLED

Men Buried Under Landslide at Scene of Excavation Near Pierreville

Pierreville, Que., Nov. 10.—Five men lost their lives when buried under a landslide near here yesterday evening. They were buried under tons of earth. They were employed on excavation work on the shore of the St. Francis River in Nicolet County, near here.

The accident occurred as the men were preparing to work in the twenty-five-foot-deep hole in which they were digging.

The excavation was completely filled by the landslide. Bodies of the victims were recovered early this morning, about seven hours after the men were trapped.

The victims were: Theophile Capino, Pierreville, Que.; Mederic Mondou, Pierreville; M. Menard, Montreal; M. Morin, Montreal, and Wilfrid St. Germain, St. Pie de Guire, Que.

WHEAT NEWS MORE BULLISH

Washington, Nov. 10.—The United States Department of Agriculture hears that Russia may not be able to complete its fall grain-sowing campaign because of the lateness of the season.

The United States agricultural attaché at Berlin in his weekly report cabled that Russia has fallen far behind in its campaign of gathering grain from collective farms.

Domestic traders are paying close heed to Soviet position in the world wheat market as Winnipeg and Chicago prices continued to swing upward at a rapid pace. Russia's present difficulty is one of the dominant factors in the brighter outlook for improved wheat returns.

The Berlin Observer said that on October 25, Russia's fall plowing amounted to 87,461,000 acres, or 82 per cent of the fall plan and 87 per cent of last year's total winter acreage.

His estimate of Russian procurings from collectives on October 25 was 54 per cent of the monthly plan. Reports long have been current that the Soviet government was having increasing difficulty in obtaining grain from farmers.

ALSO FROM ARGENTINA AND SPAIN
In another report to-day, the departments said, the third official estimate of the area sown to grain in Argentina this year shows the wheat at 17,295,000 acres as compared with 21,283,000 last year.

Thus far estimates of world wheat production in thirty-eight countries disclose a total expected crop of 3,064,087,000 bushels, compared with 3,188,238,000 a year ago.

A report from Spain to the agricultural department says that although the Spanish wheat-embargo is still in force, the ministry of finance recently authorized the duty-free importation of 75,000 bushels of Manitoba wheat for sowing purposes. It was added that similar future permits probably will be issued from time to time.

This was regarded as another encouraging factor in the general world wheat situation, including weather damage in continental Europe, shorter crops in the southern hemisphere and the bad start of domestic winter wheat in the southwest, particularly Kansas.

COL. LEWIS OF MACHINE GUN FAME DIES

Hoboken, N.J., Nov. 10.—Col. I. N. Lewis, inventor and scientist, whose Lewis machine gun was an outstanding weapon in the Great War, died of a heart attack late yesterday in a drug-store here. He was seventy-three years of age. Colonel Lewis was talking with an old friend when he collapsed and died before a physician could reach his side.

During the Great War more than 100,000 Lewis machine guns were used by the Allied armies, and at one period during the fighting the British Government detached 800,000 men from active duty to train them in the use of the weapon.

WOULD FINISH ROAD AT MOUNT DOUGLAS PARK

Governmental Approval For Development Plan Asked By Committee

New Picnic Grounds and Amphitheatre Included in Improvement Scheme

Headed by Reeve William Crouch of Saanich, the Victoria-Saanich beaches and parks committee yesterday laid before the provincial government plans for improvement of the Mount Douglas Park area, asking approval so the work can proceed next year.

The scheme included the completion of the road through the park which was halted last summer by provincial government intervention. The committee also plans a large open-air amphitheatre at the gravel pit and a new eight and one-half acre picnic ground.

Alderman John Worthington of Victoria and Municipal Engineer H. H. Allen of Saanich, with Reeve Crouch, explained the plans to Premier Tolmie, after which it was left for examination by Public Works Department engineers.

The proposed road would start from the intersections of Ash Road and Cordova Road, heading in a northerly direction along the route partially cleared and emerging near the gravel pit. The east side of this road would be developed as a new picnic ground with an ornamental arch as the entrance.

Excavation at the site of the gravel pit leaves the way open for creation of an outdoor amphitheatre with little difficulty, it was explained. There is an enclosure of nearly an acre and an open air stage could be set up in one part.

The committee is awaiting the government's decision before deciding definitely to go ahead with the work.

SAANICH GIVEN FEDERAL WORK

Will Rebuild Observatory Highway Up Little Saanich Mountain

Reconstruction of the road up Little Saanich Mountain, estimated to cost $20,000, has been entrusted to Saanich municipality by the federal government. The offer of Saanich to do the work for the actual cost was accepted yesterday and an official order to proceed has been received from the Dominion architect.

Work will be commenced as soon as possible and is expected to be an important factor in assisting the municipality to cope with the unemployment situation.

Yesterday more than 150 married men filled out new registration forms at the municipal hall and at the fire hall on Carey Road. The registration continued in force throughout to-day and will be resumed on Thursday morning.

A special meeting of the council, sitting as an unemployment relief committee, will be held at the municipal hall on Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

APPLE OUTLOOK NOW IMPROVING

Vernon, Nov. 10.—Snow and wintry conditions are now prevailing in the Okanagan Valley. Packing houses are cleaning up and there are less apples on the floors of packing houses than usual, giving color to the report that the remaining storage apples will barely supply the demand until next year's crop is ready.

Alberta and Saskatchewan are reported as having no apples in storage. Prices are firming. Storage apples are still in the hands of shippers, and growers will get the benefit of any advance in price.

Business in Calgary is exceedingly good and heavy sales are reported there this last week-end.

RUSSIANS IN CHINA DESIRE TO STAY THERE

Buffalo, N.Y., Nov. 10.—Alfred H. Kirchofer, managing editor of The Buffalo Evening News and secretary of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, yesterday made public a petition signed by 270 Russian peasants and German colonists in Harbin, Manchuria, pleading for aid in preventing their deportation to Russia.

The petition sets forth that priests and other clergymen are being persecuted by Soviet authorities, are forced to labor under command of young Communists, and that many allegedly have been put to death, their churches being confiscated for the use of atheists.

It further states 5,000,000 persons in Soviet Russia have been deprived of the right to vote, work or draw rations. Many have reportedly taken refuge in huts dug in the earth, in tents and haystacks.

BOMB SET OFF IN MELBOURNE

Melbourne, Nov. 10.—A bomb was exploded yesterday evening at the residence of Sir Stanley Argyle, leader of the Opposition in the Victoria State Legislature, who was absent at the Lord Mayor's dinner. No one was injured.

Lady Argyle, their daughter and a maid were sleeping when the explosion occurred. None was hurt, although windows throughout the house were shattered and considerable damage was done to the front part of the building. The detonation was heard for miles.

Police believe the bomb was placed under the front doormat. After searching the suburbs thoroughly officials admitted they had not found the perpetrators of the outrage, whom they believe to be Communists. Recently Communists have made a number of threats against men in public life.

URGE CAREFUL
SELECTION OF
GENEVA PARTYBusiness Women Send Resolution to Premier Bennett
Re Disarmament Delegation

"Resolved that this club send a telegram to Hon. R. B. Bennett urging early and careful consideration of the personnel of the Canadian delegation to the forthcoming disarmament conference at Geneva, and that in selecting such delegates, consideration be given to persons of tried ability, and known sympathy to the cause of world peace, and of the highest character, and acceptable to the people of Canada as a whole."

This resolution was passed at the monthly meeting of the Victoria Business and Professional Women's Club held yesterday evening at the headquarters, Langley Street, Mrs. E. G. Maynard presiding.

Miss Clay, reporting for the women's workroom, emphasized the need for funds if the undertaking is to be maintained during the winter months and suggested that if sufficient women would pledge 50 cents per month to its support, the problem of financing it would be solved. A number of the members expressed their readiness to contribute a monthly donation to the fund, and anyone willing to do so is requested to get in touch with Miss Poyson.

The report of the treasurer proved most encouraging, the announcement that the recent rummage sale had netted $87.30 being received with applause and a vote of thanks to the conveners. The departure from the city of Mrs. E. Gabbott and Miss Jessie Morrison was received with regret.

Announcement was made of a party with bridge and other diversions to be given in the clubrooms on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock, when members will be the guests of the executive.

Reports were presented by the various conveners, showing that the club is active along many lines. Correspondence from Vancouver enumerated the committees which are engaged in preparation for the annual Dominion convention next year. Members holding sheets of numbers in connection with the quilt are requested to turn them in without delay to Miss Poyson.

PACIFISTS NOT
UNPATRIOTICSays Mrs. Sinclair Lewis
Urging Fostering of a Peace
Mentality

Montreal, Nov. 9.—Whether the disarmament conference next February will meet with success or not depends in large measure on the force of world public opinion brought to bear on it, and it behooves women to do all in their power in the meantime to foster a peace mentality. This was one of the points emphasized by Dorothy Thompson, an American journalist of wide experience, who addressed the Montreal Women's Club here recently, on "The Problem of Peace." The lecturer, who in private life is Mrs. Sinclair Lewis, spent several years in Europe as foreign correspondent of some American newspapers.

Miss Thompson said it was no longer considered unpatriotic to call oneself a pacifist. But although the common attitude of the world was opposed to war, countries were not organizing for war rather than for peace. A total sum of $5,000,000,000 was spent annually on war preparations. Miss Thompson pointed out. The interest on this sum, it has been calculated, would pay the expenditure of the League of Nations, the World Court, and the International Labor Office—the three mechanisms for peace—for 600 years she said.

Besides the cost in money there was the loss to industry through the feeling of insecurity while much advanced legislation was held back for want of money. Military training was still going on in schools and colleges, which was not the way to develop a peace psychology, the lecturer thought.

Y.W.C.A. Board Meeting.—The monthly meeting of the Y.W.C.A. Board of Directors will be held on Friday at 2:30 o'clock in the board room. At 4:30 o'clock Dr. A. O. MacRae will speak on the Disarmament Conference.

Rummage Sale.—Under the auspices of the women's workroom committee a rummage sale will be held next Saturday morning at a place to be announced later. Donations will be gratefully welcomed.

Women's Workroom.—The general committee of the women's workroom will meet at the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

NOTED COUNCIL
WOMAN DIESMrs. O. C. Edwards of Calgary Succumbs to Pneumonia

Canadian Press
Lethbridge, Alta., Nov. 10.—Mrs. O. C. Edwards, prominent in the National Council of Women, died this morning of pneumonia at her home in Macleod, Alberta. She was eighty-one years of age.

Mrs. Edwards was one of the five distinguished Alberta women who carried the appeal to the privy council which gave women the right to sit in the Canadian Senate. She was a past vice-president of the National Council of Women and convener of the legislative committee of the National Council. Mrs. Edwards was recognized as an authority on laws for women and children. There will be a funeral service Wednesday at 4 o'clock at Macleod.

W.B.A. Social.—The Women's Benevolent Association will hold a social evening, including a programme of games, whist and bridge, at the home of Mrs. Trowdale, 851 Esplanade Road, Thursday. A pleasant evening is assured and a cordial invitation is extended to all friends and members. Tables may be reserved through Mrs. Trowdale or Miss Reid, telephone G 2211.

St. John's Guild.—The monthly business meeting of St. John's Guild was held in the guild-room yesterday afternoon, with a good attendance of members. The president, Mrs. J. N. Forde, read the opening prayers, and presided at the meeting which followed. The treasurer reported a very satisfactory balance from the bazaar held in the school-room on Saturday afternoon, this sum to be applied towards the cost of repairs made to the roof of the church. Mrs. Hallam was awarded the cushion in the contest conducted by the fancy work stall. The final meeting of the guild for this year will be held on Monday, November 16, at the home of Mrs. M. A. Leslie Melville, 3235 Quadra Street. A letter was received from Mrs. E. C. Richards thanking the members for the letter of sympathy sent to her in her recent bereavement.

Children's Aid Silver Tea.—The children's aid society will hold a silver tea and shower at the home, 1234 Pandora Avenue, on Thursday afternoon when contributions for the Hope Chest will be gratefully received.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

DAILY BATH SHOULD BE ENJOYABLE TO INFANT

A baby's early experiences with his bath tend to set his attitude toward it. Adults can choose the temperature that is most pleasing to them. The poor baby takes what his mother turns out, and at times he is entirely justified in screaming himself hoarse in protest.

Any ceremony which is repeated day after day, as a baby's daily bath, must of necessity be pleasant to him. It can be managed if the mother is intent on making the bath enjoyable.

BE PREPARED

Prepare everything in advance. Have the water in the tub, the clothes arranged in the exact order in which they will be used, and the room comfortably warm. If a bath thermometer is used, the temperature of the water need not be guessed. Between 99 and 100 degrees is comfortable for the baby and about 98 degrees for the larger infant.

Wash baby's face with a clean square of cheesecloth dipped in clear water. Then soap the cloth, and wash, rinse, and wipe the head carefully. Use a drop of oil on bits of cotton, and oil the inside of baby's nose. By the time the bath is completed any crusts will be softened, and can be removed without the uncomfortable prodding which all babies detest.

Each eye may be wiped with a separate piece of cotton dipped in salt water or boric acid water. The mouth should be kept entirely alone, as well as the inside of the ears. The outside may be wiped with a cloth and dried carefully, especially behind the ears.

THE PLUNGE

Baby is now ready for his plunge into the tub. Soap the cloth, going all over baby's head, gently. When he is entirely soaped, grasp him firmly by the thigh, supporting his back with the arm. Slip him into the tub and rinse him off thoroughly. If he is frightened at this unexpected dip, throw a large bath towel over the tub and let him sink into the water on it. He won't be so terrified.

When he is rinsed off, lift him out, lay him on the pad provided for this right by the tub, and pat him dry. Be careful of the creases of his skin; unless thoroughly dried they may become chafed. Rub in such a way as to oil into the creases. The dryness or oiliness of baby's own skin will determine which preparation is preferable.

Then dress baby quickly, rolling him back at forth without too much handling. Mother's hands are often unnecessarily heavy, and without meaning to she pinches baby's tender flesh and holds him in such a vice-like grasp that he howls his rage and injury. One can't work up baby's enthusiasm for a daily plunge by any such heavy-handed methods.

This should, by right, be baby's most enjoyable hour. There is the novelty of the warm water, the ability to kick and squeal, unhampered by clothes. Then comes the climax of all, the appearance of his dinner. Something is managed badly if baby fails to welcome his bath with a joyous caw.

ACTS TWO WAYS AT ONCE

Must Educate
World Citizens
Says Mrs. Ensor

Montreal, Nov. 10.—World conditions are changing rapidly and greatly. Education alone can fit people for the new conditions, and yet the majority of educational schemes do not keep pace with the needs of the day. This is the message of Mrs. Beatrice Ensor, chairman of the International Council of the New Education Fellowship, brings to Canadians from London, England, the centre of her work.

"We must look to education to produce a new type of citizen to meet our requirements of to-morrow," she said, when interviewed here recently. "But the greatest problem is to find out what the type we want really is, and the second problem is how to educate it. 'We must recognize that the world is becoming more and more a unit,' she said. 'And therefore we must try to develop the world citizens of the future. In this lies the work of my organization.'"

Guiders Will Be
At Armistice
Service To-morrow

At the monthly meeting of the local association of Girl Guides, held yesterday afternoon at the headquarters, Langley Street, Miss Hilda Leighton reported on the very successful series of training classes held last week under Miss Aileen Ross, a Blue corder from Quebec.

Much interest was taken in the classes, an average of forty attending each meeting. Duncan, Sanich and Sidney were well represented as well as the two Victoria districts. Training which was of a very practical and helpful nature, included some good games. Miss Ross expressed her appreciation of the enthusiasm and keenness of the Guiders.

The Armistice Day service at the cenotaph will be attended by Guiders and a poppy wreath will be sent by the local association.

The annual swimming gala will be held at the Crystal Garden on December 6 at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Fitz-Gibbon reported that the autumn examinations were now in progress.

The president, Miss Wigley, announced that the Hildebrand Brown pack had been adopted by the Margaret Brooke Robertson Chapter, I.O.G.E., which is already interested in the Hildebrand company.

Miss Wigley appealed to the members to give their individual support to the women's workroom in monthly donations, if possible.

Guiders attending the Armistice Day service to-morrow are requested to assemble at 619 Beattie Street to-morrow morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Bonfire Breakfasts

By BARBARA B. BROOKS

Can you resist the invitation of the autumn woods any longer? Already evening crimson spots have begun to appear on the hillsides and many of the leaves have fallen wearily to the ground after a long summer of dancing in the breezes. They beckon you to come. It is time to pull an old brown sweater over your head, don substantial boots and take that early morning hike which you have been promising yourself for so long time.

Take materials for breakfast and after you are tired of tramping, select a suitable spot, brush away the frost-dampened leaves, build a bonfire and prepare to enjoy the best breakfast you ever ate.

As the firewood available may be damp and not easy to burn, it is a wise hiker who carries a few sticks of dry kindling and several sheets of yesterday's newspaper with him for starting the fire. You will find that your appetite is kindled more easily than the fire and you can hardly wait until the flames have subsided and the glowing embers are ready to cook the food.

There must be bacon, as nothing—absolutely nothing—tastes quite as good. And the odor of it, swirling over the fire, mingled with the good woody odors, is just too appetizing! Then we will have outdoor pancakes. After the exercise, the fresh air and the brain which we will add to these cakes, we need not fear indigestion, even though we indulge a bit heavily.

It is not always convenient to carry along utensils for measuring ingredients, so we are giving recipes such as scouts use on their hikes and in their camps.

Scout Measurements

"Handful"—Use hand as scoop (by closing fingers) and fill full as possible.

"Fingers"—Of dry ingredients, such as flour, baking powder, sugar. Use number of fingers called for, and dip into material, lifting out with fingers and thumb, without turning hand.

"Fingers of Fat"—Use little finger as scoop.

Pancakes
Small recipe (makes six or eight)—One handful flour, 2 fingers salt, 4 fingers baking powder, 4 fingers sugar, 1/2 egg, 1/2 cup milk and 1 finger fat, melted.

Large recipe—Three cups flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 tablespoons baking powder, 4 tablespoons sugar, 1 egg, 2 cups milk and 2 tablespoons melted fat.

Mix dry ingredients (sifting makes them better), add egg, slightly beaten with the milk and the melted fat, and drop by spoonful on hot greased griddle or frying pan. Cook on one side until full of bubbles, turn and cook on other side.

All-bran Pancakes
To the pancake batter add one handful of all-bran. The bran mixture will require more liquid than the plain one.

For fruit at this breakfast take the juicy kinds, oranges, peaches, grapefruit or grapes. Ready-to-eat cereals may easily be a part of the menu because little individual packages may be slipped into the corners of the kinnapacks, opened with a sharp knife and eaten with evaporated milk or some which you have purchased from a nearby farmer just as he was coming from the morning milking. Another requisite of the perfect outdoor breakfast is coffee. This may be produced from a thermos jug or made on the spot. Here again a can of evaporated milk or the nearby farmer comes in handy.

Gems of Peril
by HAZEL ROSS HAILEY

When they had scattered, he came up to Dirk.

"Did you see it?" he asked.

"We just came up. That's my car down there," Dirk answered negligently.

"Tell him," Mary whispered. "Tell him about the car—you know—"

"Mary bit her lip, vexed that her eyes were black with fear and her teeth chattering.

Before another word could be said Bowen jostled between them, giving Mary an unmistakable jab in the ribs with his elbow. The jab wrenched her, and the surprise took the words out of her open mouth.

He took the officer aside and they held brief confab. Bowen's police card helped to smooth matters over. Dirk's quick "Sh-h!" kept Mary from making any further attempt to speak of the other car. Puzzled but quiescent, she let him lead her back to the coupe. He anxiously toward Bowen seemed to have melted abruptly. Presently Bowen and the policeman parted, and Bowen came straight to their car.

"Where do you want to go?" Climb in," Dirk invited.

"No, I can get a cab," Bowen's voice sounded shy.

"Get in!" Dirk commanded. Mary moved closer to Dirk and Bowen obediently climbed in on the other side. "Let's get away from here," he said.

Uptown they sped for some time without a word spoken. Dirk was first to break the silence.

"Do you're the kind of a driver who turns around in the middle of the block, in a street that's too narrow to turn around in," he said.

"But you could have got yourself killed, you fool!" Dirk protested.

"Yes, I lost a good fingernail saving your worthless hide," Bowen agreed amiably, squinting at the injured digit by the aid of a street light.

"I owe you something for that," Dirk said. "What'll it be, a new car?"

"Forget it," Bowen scoffed. "I seemed vastly pleased with myself."

through narrowed eyes, feeling the rising of a temper she had never known she had.

"Why not?"

"Is he the only thing who knows a valuable necklace when he sees it? Any crook in Christendom would have taken out after anybody with no more sense than to display a thing like that in a speakeasy! Might have been that Lon Chaney waiter, for all we know."

"But Dirk," Mary said, with ominous calm, "that car was the same car that killed Eddie. I told you that."

Dirk smiled wryly down at her. "Now don't start that all over again," he said lightly. "You could not recognize a particular car of standard make, like that, in that light, at that distance. I wouldn't put you on the stand myself with such a statement. Opposing counsel would make monkeys out of us. You saw it under similar circumstances, hitting someone, and you were already wrought up and ready to believe it was the same car. Consequently you think so. That's all."

"Oh, don't be so—so legal," Mary hurried at him furiously, for lack of a more opprobrious epithet. "I don't care what you say, it was the same car. I'd swear to it!" she appealed to Bowen. "Tell him!" she demanded. "Tell him it was the same car!"

But Bowen merely answered "What's the use?"

Unexpectedly even to herself, Mary began to cry. Helpless tears rained down her cheeks, and she covered her face with her hands and wept.

Bowen looked straight ahead and said nothing. Dirk patted her knee awkwardly. "Don't, sweetheart!" he begged. "You've got to see this thing straight sometime. It might as well be now."

Dirk went on, gently. "The trouble is, Mary, you're taking the whole thing too hard. You—oughtn't to blame Eddie so much. A young kid like that—you can't know what he was up against. No woman could. He—"

"I understand that he didn't do it. Do you?" Mary asked, with terrible calm. She was looking at him as at a stranger.

"Perhaps not," Dirk replied after a moment's hesitation. He flushed brick red as he tried to meet her eyes. Unconsciously he had fallen into the habit of thinking of Eddie as a weak, tormented boy driven to stealing, and a murderer by accident. He accepted the murder as a fact, but saw extenuating circumstances.

"You think him guilty and you don't blame him," Mary said. "Well, I think him innocent of everything except the gambling charge, but I blame him just the same. He put himself in a position where anything—even this—could be said of him, and now he can never explain himself—he's dead. What if no one ever knew—the papers, I mean? The police? Do you suppose it means nothing to you that you think that your father and mother think it? Do you suppose it won't make a difference between us, always? It would be like living with a ghost. Some day I'd hate you."

She huddled between them, dabbing her eyes with a small ball of handkerchief. If she had looked at Dirk, the hurt look that came into his eyes at her last words might have changed her, made her weaken again. But she did not look up.

Another traffic stop, and the three people sat uncomfortably silent.

While they were waiting, Dirk reached into the pocket of his topcoat, lying on the shelf back of them, and brought out the gun Bowen had given him. He balanced it on his hand in the glow of the dashlight.

"Nice little gun," he said judicially. "Got a permit to carry it?"

Mary pressed against the two men by the narrowness of the car-seat, distinctly felt Bowen start. She looked up and caught a look of embarrassment on his face.

"No—o," he admitted. "It's not mine, exactly."

Dirk squinted at it critically. "30 calibre Colt, isn't it? An old timer, but it's in good condition. Where'd you pick it up?" He darted a look at Bowen, who changed color, opened his mouth to speak, gulped, and was silent.

Dirk nodded. "I thought so," he said. Bowen burst out: "What was the use of letting the kid take the rap for Sullivan law violation? If he'd lived I was going to give it back to him. It slipped out of his pocket when he fell, and I palmed it. It wasn't him, though."

Dirk put it in his pocket thoughtfully. "You can have it back tomorrow. I want to look it over."

Bowen said "There aren't any fingerprints on it. I got all the good ones."

"Harkness's, of course."

"Sure. He was carrying it. But there were others."

"Whose?"

"I'll tell you when we get back to Shay's."

Dirk said, "We're not going back to Shay's, now or any other time. You can, if you like, but Mary's going home and going to bed. You might have picked another night for all this romping around, you two. Have you forgotten what day to-morrow is?" he asked, looking at Mary, half-chiding, half-serious. To Bowen he added: "Mind if I put you down somewhere?"

"Right here," Bowen said. "The car swerved to the curb, and he got out. Mary moved over into the space he had vacated, then, obeying a powerful impulse, climbed out after him. She stood beside him, a small muttonous figure with hard accusing eyes. To Dirk's amazed entreaty, she shook her head.

"I'm getting out here, too," she said.

"You shouldn't have done that," Bowen objected. "Now how'll you get home?"

"I'm not going home just yet," Mary said. "You're going back to Shay's and get what fingerprints you can. Where are the ones you got off the gun?"

"In my hotel room."

"I'll go there and wait for you. I don't feel equal to Shay's again, right now. Besides, it might be better if you went alone."

"I'll get kicked out anyway," Bowen muttered morosely. "Look," he said, "you better not do this. You better make it up with him while you can, or there's liable not to be any wedding to-morrow."

"There isn't going to be anyhow!" Mary flamed. "Until I find out who's right. If those fingerprints tally, there won't be any, anyway, until that man's caught. One thing at a time, and that comes first with me. If they don't—if you've just been giving me a cock-and-bull story—"

Are Young Girls to Blame When Married Men Find Them Attractive?

DEAR MISS DIX—We hear a lot about girls running after married men. Why do the girls get all the blame? Nobody ever seems to think about married fools who haven't brains enough to know when they have good ones, but insist upon showering attentions upon girls who don't want them and don't appreciate them.

I work in an office and I meet a lot of different men every day and have invitations to lunch, shows, rides, etc. I accept them? I do not. They are all sick. Every time one of these men sees a pretty new face he immediately asks for a date, and if the girl accepts he spends the evening telling her how his wife doesn't understand him and a lot of other boloney. So when married women discover that their husbands are tired of them they don't blame the girls. Put the blame where it is due—on the men themselves.

Answer—True enough. No man was ever vamped against his will. No girl in the world was ever beautiful enough or alluring enough or endowed with enough charm to lure a faithful man away from his wife. Before a man's affections can be stolen from their lawful owner he has to be guilty of at least contributory negligence and he is always accessory before the crime.

For there is this peculiar thing about love, that while we love an individual or she absorbs us entirely and we are immune for the time being to all her attractions, be they ever so great. In modern parlance, we simply can't see anyone else except the one upon whom we have set our fancy. We are blind to the beauty of others. Deaf to their wooing. Bored by their attentions. Their charms leave us cold and untouched.

So long as a man really loves his wife and in his heart is true to her, she is literally the only woman in the world to him, and she sings their songs to him in vain and blondes roll their large blue eyes at him for naught and the petters and the smuglers merely annoy him by plying their arts at close range.

It is only after a man has ceased to care for his wife and is beginning to amaze that he notices every pretty girl and what a bathing-beauty figure his neighbor has. Then he is easy picking for every gold-digger and becomes a nuisance to every decent girl who would rather earn her bread and butter than for her cake by being a married man's sweetie.

Of course, the theory that a little eighteen or nineteen-year-old girl is a wily adventuress who possesses some subtle magic by which she can turn a hard-headed business man old enough to be her father or her grandfather away from the straight and narrow path and cause him to be a philanderer and forsake his family is absurd. The man has a hundred times the experience and knowledge of life that the girl has and therefore knows far better what he is doing than she does. He is accustomed to sizing up men and women and penetrating their motives and so he is no gullible infant who is easily taken in. And he has acquired plenty of backbone that enables him to offer "sales resistance" to any proposition that he doesn't want to go into.

So when he falls for a pretty face it is because he was out looking for something that was easier on his eyes than his wife. And when he buys a superior hold-up artist, but because he gets more of a kick out of seeing champagne for chorus girls than paying for certified milk for the baby. I doubt if any man who was true to his wife was ever led astray by a girl. It is only the husbands who have jumped the bars and who are running around looking for a playmate who get taken in.

But it is natural that the wives should blame the girls. It is the only way in which they can save their faces and make it possible to forgive their erring spouses, and surely no one needs begrudge them this poor comfort.

It enables many a wife to palliate her husband's offense against her to believe he has been the victim of some super-vamp with occult powers of attraction that no man could resist, and that it was against his will and inclination that he was torn away from his own fireside. And how they cure it out that a man who has intelligence enough to carry on a big business and boss hundreds of employees and pile up a fortune hasn't enough sense and strength to circumvent a little two-by-four girl in her teens is somebody's business.

But no matter if it is the man's fault and he runs after you pretty young girls, you at least are to blame in encouraging him in his wrongdoing. Have a heart and think how you would feel if you were a middle-aged woman and your husband was philandering around with a pretty girl and spending on her the money that was needed at home.

More About Iron

How many things can you name that are made of iron or steel? Let's see what we can do in starting the list.

Bessemer "converter" at work.

Machines of many kinds are made entirely or entirely of iron and steel. Factories which farmers use, and motor cars in which we ride about the streets, are largely products of the iron industry.

Without iron and steel we could not have railroad trains of the kind we possess to-day. Skyscrapers could not come nearly so close to scraping the sky, for such buildings are made possible by strong steel framework.

In olden days, ships were composed almost entirely of wood, though iron nails and bolts were used to hold planks together. At the present time ocean liners are composed in large part of steel and iron.

So it goes. If Nature had not provided iron, we should be leading a different kind of life. Other metals can take the place of iron to some extent, but no other metal has all the good points of iron.

Most iron ore is hard rock, found well below the ground surface, which must be blasted before being brought up by the miners. In northern Minnesota, however, is the famed Mesabi range, which provides iron ore soft enough and near enough to the surface to be scooped up with steam shovels.

The oldest piece of iron thus far discovered was preserved in the Great Pyramid of Egypt. It is a spear-head which dates back almost 4,000 years. Another iron relic, now in the British Museum, is an Egyptian axe-head which is believed to be 3,000 years old. A portion of an iron saw was found amid the ruins of Nineveh. It is believed that the saw was the product of an Assyrian blacksmith. The portion found measures forty-four inches in length.

Modern methods of treating iron ore are far better than those used in olden times. We have furnaces which produce higher degrees of heat, and we remove a larger amount of the "impure" parts of the ore.

Steel is iron which has been specially treated to make it hard and tough. When steel is being "tempered," various degrees of heat produce different colors, including yellow, brown, purple and blue. In the Bessemer process of making steel, a strong draft of air is forced through molten iron.

Cold Insurance

He carries it with him, ready for just such times. That little box of Aspirin tablets. If he catches cold, what of it? Aspirin will stop it. If his throat feels sore, he will end the soreness with one good gargle made from these tablets.

Dangerous complications can follow the neglect of "a common cold." Every case of tonsillitis began with "just a sore throat." It's a wise plan to take Aspirin after any undue exposure to bad weather, or whenever there is any chance that you've caught cold. Aspirin can't possibly hurt you; and how it does banish the aches and pains caused by colds, neuralgia, neuritis, lumbago, and even rheumatism.

Aspirin will insure your comfort through the worst cold season. The more susceptible you are to colds, the more you need it. Sold at drug stores. Made in Canada.

FOWLER TELLS OF CONVENTION

Canadian Chamber Offers Plan for Relief of Unemployment

Victoria Delegate Reviews Work of Regina Meeting

Subjects dealt with by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce during the recent convention in Regina were discussed by P. B. Fowler, a former president of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce at the quarterly luncheon meeting of the Victoria chamber yesterday.

Mr. Fowler told how the Canadian Chamber directed its attention to ways of helping the agricultural industry, to unemployment, transportation and other problems.

In order to obtain a comprehensive view of agriculture, practical agriculturists from Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta were called in, as well as experts such as Sanford Evans, Mr. Fowler said. After some hours of debate it was finally decided to pass a very broad resolution as follows:

"Resolved that the Canadian Chamber of Commerce take the initiative in an endeavor to secure the co-operation of agricultural producers, the trade, a number of outstanding business men, the federal Departments of Agriculture and of Trade and Commerce, and the provincial Departments of Agriculture in bringing about the establishment of a Canadian Institute of Agriculture whose functions would include a thorough and continuous study of agricultural policy and of marketing possibilities in Canada and other countries, the extension of existing markets and the promotion of new markets and the dissemination of information as to the present and prospective requirements of individual markets as to quantity, quality, period of supply and the sales and other channels through which such may be fully developed."

UNEMPLOYMENT FUNDS

Unemployment was discussed, and with this in view a round table conference was held, at which there were key speakers, followed by a very comprehensive discussion from the floor.

The following resolution was passed:

"1. That the federal government be asked to call an employment conference as soon as possible.

"2. That leaders in industry, finance, insurance, together with other representatives of workers, be called together to find the best solution of the problem.

"3. That the findings of this conference be reported to the federal government with a view to having definite action taken at the earliest possible time."

Underlying this resolution and for the purpose of bringing it before such a conference when called was the idea that a fund should be set up, contributed to by employer, employee and the government for the purpose of supplying non-productive work to the unemployed at a much lesser wage than was enjoyed by those engaged in productive industry. Thus industrial wages would be kept up, and as business starts up again it will attract workers from the unproductive work by the very fact of increased wages, and if the fund were continuous during good times a reasonable reserve would be set up to care for leaner years, which must inevitably recur from time to time.

It was very evident from the commencement, said Mr. Fowler, that the resolution committee intended to be in the negative with regard to any resolution even hinting at the expenditure of public funds, and a further result a strong resolution urging economy on governments was passed as follows:

"The Canadian Chamber of Commerce recommends to our government bodies and to the citizens of Canada:

"1. The practical recognition of the need for economy by all public bodies spending public moneys raised by taxation or otherwise.

"2. A determined effort by our federal, provincial and municipal governments to secure reliable estimates of expenditure which will enable and justify the curtailment of unnecessary expenditures."

TRANSPORTATION

G. C. Macdonald delivered a very strong address dealing with the economic rivalry between transportation companies, which resulted in the passing of the following resolution:

"In view of the competition of the two great transportation systems which has resulted in much duplication of equipment and services and has brought about a situation whereby the public of Canada are being seriously affected, the government should take appropriate action with a view to eliminating all unnecessary duplication and uneconomic competition and if found advisable should appoint a commission to study the railway and steamship transportation problem in all its major aspects and to make recommendations in connection therewith."

At the meeting of Majestic Council, 1513, Royal Arcanum, held yesterday evening in the Elks Club lodge, it was announced that the social evening scheduled for Thursday evening would be postponed until Friday of this week at the Macabees Hall, 724 Fort Street.

The committee in charge of the arrangements reported a good sale of tickets to members. Following a court night tournament, refreshments will be served. Dancing will follow.

The next meeting of the order will be held on November 23 in the Shrine lodge room when an honor class of new members will be presented to Regent Carl Stocker, who has held the office of regent for the last two years.

During the orators' hour yesterday evening the members enjoyed musical numbers by the following members: Vocal quartette, Jack McDowell, Jim Stewart, Stan Weeks, Walter Rivercomb; solo, Doug. Parks and saxophone and trombone duet, Fred Townsend and Bert Applegate.

Before the closing rite of the council was performed a one-minute period of silence was observed at the altar in tribute to the departed brothers who fell in the World War.

HOW THEY PUT OUT BLAZING GUSHER

Thirty quarts of nitro-gelatin, set off with an explosion that shook Oklahoma City, literally blew out a flaming suburban oil well that had burned for three days despite heroic efforts to extinguish it. Above is shown the flaming well, with sketches showing how Floyd Kinley, famous oil well fire fighter, and three others blew out the blaze with the explosion.

GYRO MEMBERS GIVE TALKS

R. L. Challoner Deals With Paper Boxes and Fred. Hawes With Lumbering

"Home Talent" held the spotlight at the Gyro Club luncheon in the Empress Hotel yesterday, when club members were called upon to give five-minute speeches on the lines of business they engage in. Owing to press of time, only two speeches were given. R. L. Challoner, manager of the Victoria Paper Box Factory, spoke on paper boxes and Fred. Hawes, sales manager of the Canadian Paper Sound Lumber Company, dealt with "lumbering."

After a short description of the two kinds of paper boxes, the folding and rigid varieties, Mr. Challoner mentioned the side line of his company which had become the main line. This was the manufacture of egg-case fillers. His company controlled the B.C. market in this business, had entered Alberta and hoped soon to break into Saskatchewan. No paper box factory, Mr. Challoner added, could survive without some sideline.

The lumbering industry was the largest individual source of revenue in British Columbia, said Mr. Hawes at the beginning of his talk. It was not far behind the total revenue from both mining and agriculture. Last year the value of forest products totaled $85,000,000 and $3,500,000 was collected in timber royalties, taxes and licenses.

British Columbia, the speaker continued, had one-half the merchantable soft wood in Canada. There were 1,076 firms reporting; over 30,000 men were employed and the annual payroll amounted to over $40,000,000. When business picked up, a much better outlook in the Australian market was forecast for B.C. lumbermen, because of the recent preferential ruling.

PEOPLE FEEL NEED TO LAUGH, SAYS PLUNKETT

Dumbbells Drive Depression Away as Western Reception Outdoes All Previous Tours

Original All-male Show Back Because Public Demanded It, Leader Claims

"We have been doing our best to laugh away the depression and have succeeded far beyond our expectations," declared Capt. M. W. Plunkett when he brought his show, "The Dumbbells" into town yesterday.

"I attribute the success of our present tour to two reasons—the public are glad to see the all-male show back and even in times of depression people feel the need of a good laugh.

"When we introduced girls into the show the Dumbbells lost their originality. We were the first and foremost all-male show in the war and we are still at the head of the procession."

"The public demanded it," he said, in explanation of the reversion to male characters in feminine roles, and that explains the title, "As You Were."

PLAYED TO BIG HOUSES

"We faced a barrage of depression when we set out for the west, but it soon evaporated. We were told to stay away from Regina, but we played to the best houses we have ever had there. Last year we put on a three-day show at Calgary. This year we played there for a week to big houses. And it was the same at Edmonton and at Vancouver. Capacity and enthusiastic houses everywhere. It just goes to show that the people want to laugh even when things are blue."

Over a year ago, Ross Hamilton was reported to have died at Kalamazoo, Mich., and when it turned out that the original "Marjorie" still lived, Capt. Plunkett was accused of getting a great deal of advertising to which he was not entitled.

Ross read his own obituaries and flowers sent by his many friends in all parts of the country, but the native of Great Village, Nova Scotia, lived to tell the tale.

OPENED IN LONDON

The Dumbbells opened their present tour at London, Ont., on September 22, and spent two weeks in Ontario before setting out for Winnipeg and the west. They will return east by way of Lethbridge and will play at Christman and New Year in Toronto, Capt. Plunkett's home city.

The Dumbbells will play at the Royal Victoria Theatre, this evening and tomorrow.

YOUNG PEOPLE HOLD MEETING

First United Group Held Musical Programme and Social Yesterday

In place of the regular weekly meeting, which was merged with the lecture given by Prof. Gowen in First United Church, yesterday evening a short reception was held by the Young People's Society of First United Church after service on Sunday evening, when a large number of members and their friends attended.

George Gordon led the group in the singing of some favorite hymns, and enjoyable vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. M. Discombe, Miss Elsie Robinson and Miss Ina Easton. Jack Smith acted as accompanist.

The musical programme was followed by a short social period, during which Miss Annie Gough, of the social committee, served light refreshments. Announcement was made that next week's meeting would be in the form of a mock musical festival, which promises to be very entertaining.

Rev. Bruce Gray spoke of the meeting to be held in the church this evening and urged the young people to attend.

Strawberry Vale

The A.Y.P.A. of St. Columba church held their fortnightly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Wellington Road, on Friday evening, E. Gray presided.

Plans were made for entertainments to take place shortly, the first to be a motion picture entertainment to be held in Strawberry Vale Hall on Friday, November 13, featuring "The Holy City, the Cradle of Civilization."

The meeting was then turned over to the devotional committee, with E. Murphy in charge.

On Friday evening at 8.15 o'clock the "Ghost Bird," by Neil E. Schaffner, will be presented by the Fairfield Players at the Shrine Auditorium. It is one of the outstanding plays of the season, being an unusual detective mystery in which thrills are mingled with laughter, sustaining mystery and comedy throughout.

There is a life and death contest of wits between a super-crook and a master mind on the police detective force.

The play is well cast and a good orchestra will be in attendance.

Clean Skin Is Health Armor
Plenty of Soap and Water Help Skin Fight Bacteria
By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN

Were it not for the fact that the human body contains mechanisms for resisting infection, bacteria would soon dominate the earth. Various types of antiseptic solutions have been developed by scientific medicine to aid
the body tissues in resisting infection.
The skin was formerly considered merely an envelope for the human body, a sort of cover to hold in the tissues or the organs. Now it is realized that the skin has its own blood supply and that it must be considered an essential living tissue.
In order to find out to what extent the skin could destroy bacteria, Dr. J.
F. Norton and Miss Marguerite Novy recently made special studies on this point. The hands of workers were put in a dilute suspension of bacteria.
Then a sterile cotton swab was rubbed over a designated surface of the skin and inoculated into a plate of culture medium. When the bacteria grew, the were counted, so that it was possible to determine the extent to which the skin could itself destroy germs.
It is well established that there are always living germs on the skin, and it seemed possible to the investigators that perhaps some other mechanism was responsible for the gradual disappearance of the germs from the skin.

As a result of their investigations,
the authors conclude that bacteria applied to the skin diminish in numbers very rapidly, the greatest diminution occurring during the first ten minutes.
The most important factor involved, they discovered, was the presence of moisture. The organisms disappear more rapidly when the skin dries rapidly than when it is kept moist.
There seems to be no doubt but that virulent germs getting on the skin and finding a spot in which the surface is broken, such as occurs in times of wounds, bruises or other injuries, may set up serious infection. In such instances, the use of antiseptics and germicides brings about rapid destruction of the germs.
It is also well established that the use of plenty of soap and water is an exceedingly useful technique for avoiding skin infections.

ELEVATORS IN
WEST FILLING
RAPIDLY NOW
Calgary, Nov. 9.—The heavy flow of grain has filled the elevators at Vancouver, and the Victoria elevator will be filled rapidly with grain from Edmonton, according to a report from the Western Grain Inspection office today. The Calgary government elevator has commenced receiving grain, the report says, and the new elevator at Lethbridge and the government elevator at Edmonton are filling quickly under the heavy flow.

ROWELL MAKES MISSION APPEAL

Asks Vancouver Rally For Funds For United Church Work in Prairies

Vancouver, Nov. 10.—Addressing a missionary rally in Chown United Church here yesterday evening, Hon. Newton W. Rowell, K.C., repeated the appeal for contributions to assist the moderator of the United Church, based on a graduated scale for the clergy and on ten per cent of three months' income for laymen. This is a call to accept the charge and to assist the United Church to carry on its missionary work at home and in foreign fields," said Mr. Rowell.

"Because of the extremely severe conditions on the prairies it has been estimated that the United Church will this year receive $225,000 less from the three prairie provinces for its maintenance and missionary work than usual. The newspaper world of the Dominion. As everyone who knew him knows that they have lost a friend, so the Province of British Columbia has lost a great leader," Mr. Rowell said in reference to Mr. Matson.

A report received by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau this morning states that between January 1 and October 31 this year, 87,513 California cars were registered as passing through Oregon, an increase of two per cent over the previous year. Members of the Chamber of Commerce were urged to support the organization as far as possible financially by adding to its strength in membership by R. W. Mayhew, president, at the directors' luncheon yesterday. Mr. Mayhew touched upon some of the work the chamber has done during the year referring to the benefits accruing from the Salt Spring Island and other goodwill trips, and reminding the members that business men of Victoria had been assisted by these contacts which promoted trade between the city and the points visited.

Arrangements for a visit to the Duncan Post on December 9, when they will present to the up-landers the traveling gavel, and announcement of a membership drive, featured the business of the Victoria Post No. 1, Native Sons of British Columbia, at its meeting yesterday evening in the Sons of England Hall. Fred Walker acted as guide at the installation of two new members and a committee composed of Robert Hicocks, Arthur Landy and Robert Miles was appointed to make plans for the winter social season. ### CANDIDATE FOR POLICE BOARD

Who to-day announced he would stand for election to the Board of Police Commissioners at the polls in December, Dr. Miles, who is a native son, is a practicing dentist here and is also well-known for his activities in connection with the Kinsman Club and other young men's organizations. His policy in connection with the Board, if elected, would be one of efficiency and economy, although he did not contemplate any elaborate changes.

"I have acceded to requests to place my name in nomination," he said, "because I feel that the younger business and professional men of the city should take a greater and more active interest in our civic policies than they do."

Dr. Miles was formerly a candidate for school trustee, making a good showing on his first appearance at the polls.

Recent investigations indicate that certain dolomite limestones in the Niagara district are suitable for making "rock wool," a glossy fibrous wool resembling sheep's wool and used for building and other heat insulation purposes. The process of making rock wool is interesting, consisting of having a jet of molten limestones from a cupola furnace meet a blast of steam from a shower of fibres results.

Armistice Period — Red Cross Campaign

In Flanders' Fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row, That mark our brave boys' graves and they lay the larks still bravely singing fly. We are the dead. Short days ago We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved, and now we lie In Flanders' Fields. (COL. MCREEA)

In VICTORIA Our wives and children in your care, Please to neglect them—will ye dare? They set us free from service due To give our lives for King and you. Four pledges you gave their needs should share Like thought with yours; and everywhere You would maintain their every right. If we would leave them and here fight In Flanders' Fields. (E. R. BINGHAM)

Victoria Chamber of Commerce Receives Dominion Bureau Reports

Data Will Stimulate Trade Between Firms in Canada

The industrial survey of Victoria for which extensive data was secured by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce for the National Development Bureau of the Department of the Interior has been completed and the three volumes containing the survey were received by the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

The survey provides a valuable acquisition to the already extensive business library of the chamber and represents months of work in securing data from every business house and industry in the city and information on prospects of other industries. Similar surveys have been prepared by other Canadian cities and in a letter to the managing secretary of the Victoria chamber P. C. Lynch, director of the National Development Bureau, offers to place all co-operative facilities at the disposal of the chamber. The information made available by the surveys, it is anticipated, will prove of benefit in the interchange of trade between Canadian cities and stimulate purchasing between Canadian firms.

The report is in three parts. Part one contains all available data on the facilities and other district features which are factors in the community's future progress and are of interest to prospective manufacturers and in general to all prospective business men and residents.

Part two contains a collation and digest of all the industrial data collected by the industrial committee of the chamber, together with a correlation and analysis of the various opinions offered by the business organizations of Victoria in regard to the local advantages and opportunities for industrial development. It also outlines avenues for further field investigations for the purpose of strengthening the basic information necessary for a thorough industrial study of your district's possibilities.

Part three embraces a correlation and analysis of all statistical data available in Ottawa pertaining to those classes of Canadian industry which were suggested by Victoria business men as possible of development in the district and others which apparently had possibilities.

LONGSHOREMAN IS RECOVERING

J. W. Irwin, 741 View Street, longshoreman, who sustained a fractured skull and injured back when crushed by timbers falling from a sling loading a freighter at the Ogden Point docks yesterday afternoon, was reported resting a little more comfortably at the St. Joseph's Hospital this afternoon. His condition, it was stated, had improved slightly.

Mr. Irwin was a member of a gang loading the freighter Tenarun on Japanese squares. A slingload of lumber was being taken aboard when three or four pieces of lumber slipped out and landed on his head. He was extricated by fellow workmen and rushed to the hospital in a C. Sinclair ambulance.

TWO HUNT FOR MISSING WOMAN

Constable and Trapper Search For Miss Mary Warburton North of Vancouver

Vancouver, Nov. 10.—With a faint hope that Miss Mary Warburton, sixty-year-old nurse, who was lost while walking from Squamish to Indian River, has taken refuge in some cabin on the trail, Provincial Constable W. Gill commenced a second trek from Squamish this morning in search of the missing woman.

The officer was accompanied by Jack Barker, trapper, who was with him last week's trip when a note from the woman was found and traces of her were discovered along the Indian River trail. Both men were equipped with snowshoes and skis.

The searchers plan to go over the route they discovered had been taken by Miss Warburton to the summit of the divide. Thence they hope to turn south over a trail via Seymour Creek to North Vancouver. That area was covered last week by W. J. Blundell, water district ranger, who made a search of the trail from Britannia Mine to Loch Lochmond and then down Seymour Creek.

Constable Gill and his companion are not expected to reach North Vancouver before Saturday.

Dickens Society Given Address By C. C. Pemberton

An enjoyable evening was spent by the members of the Dickens Fellowship yesterday at the Hilben-Bone Block.

After the disposal of business, an interesting address was given by the president, C. C. Pemberton, on the subject of "The Cricket on the Hearth Operetta," which is described in the musical dictionary as being a very entertaining piece of orchestral music. It was the feeling of the meeting that the music might be procured and a demonstration given. It was agreed that steps to this end be adopted.

W. Llewellyn read the letters of Charles Dickens to his oldest friend, which were released for publication by Sir Henry Dickens (the last living son of the great writer) in The Strand for November and The Bookman for October. Quotations from "Dombey & Son" were also given. The next meeting of the Fellowship will be of a social nature, interspersed with ghost stories.

MAN SAVED FROM RIVER

Cars Collide on Bridge Near Port Coquitlam; One Plunges Over

Port Coquitlam, Nov. 10.—Pluck and resourcefulness of Robert Kennedy and James Barnes, sons of farmers near here, saved the life of W. Dunlop, merchant of Hammond, who was hurled in his car into the Pitt River following a collision with a Pacific Stage bus on the Pitt River bridge at 7.25 yesterday evening.

Dunlop's car struck the stage a few yards from the east end of the bridge and crashed through the wooden railings into the river, twenty-five feet below.

Dunlop managed to extricate himself from the car and is said to have been swimming about blindly in the dark. A passenger in the bus, seeing Dunlop's danger, threw a piece of the broken railing at hazard and Dunlop managed to grasp it and support himself.

Kennedy and Barnes then came on the scene. Kennedy being aware that a ladder leading from the bridge to the water was nearby, climbed down and managed to grab Dunlop and support him. Barnes rushed over to Peter's garage on the opposite side of the bridge for help, and with Peterson they secured a small rowboat and rescued Dunlop.

Dunlop, on being dragged from the water, was taken to the Coquitlam Private Hospital in an exhausted condition.

The car lies in thirty feet of water.

MASSEY ARRIVES HERE SHORTLY

Returning Nov. 22 From Pacific Relations Institute in Shanghai

By PERCY WHITEHEAD Canadian Press Staff Correspondent

Tokio, Oct. 31. (By Mail)—Hon. Vincent Massey, chairman of the Canadian delegation to the Institute of Pacific Relations, which has just concluded a meeting at Shanghai instead of Hanchow, and Massey, and the rest of the delegation, are due to return home aboard the liner Empress of Japan, which will leave Yokohama on November 14 and is due at Victoria and Vancouver November 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Massey are expected to spend several days in Tokyo as the guests of the Canadian Minister and Mrs. Marler, and will stay at thelegation. Mr. and Mrs. Massey will probably be able to see something of Canadian business, educational and social as well as diplomatic, activities in Japan while they are here.

It is reported here from Shanghai that finally the Sin-Japanese conflict in Manchuria came up for discussion, resulting in a somewhat tense atmosphere. According to the report, the discussion was started by one of the British delegates, who commencing on Japan's declaration that her action in Manchuria was a self-defence said, "Japan has pointed a pistol at China's head, yet declares it was for self-protection. Such action can hardly be called self-defence."

To this Dr. Inazo Nitobe, leader of the Japanese delegates, and noted scholar and member of the House of Peers, is reported to have replied: "Is not China committing acts which deserve to have a pistol pointed at her? Can you not be aware what was the cause of the China-Japan controversy?"

Edmonton Grads Crush Eastern "Stars" in Decided Manner

Establish Beyond Doubt Their Supremacy in Canadian Basketball

Regina Roughriders Appear Headed Towards Another Western Crown

Desmond Grubb, Former Victoria Boy, Still Starting for Champions

ANY DOUBT that might have existed in the minds of eastern basketball officials as to the supremacy of the famed Edmonton Grads in Canadian basketball was clearly wiped out last week by the crushing defeat of a team of eastern all-stars by an aggregate count of 223 to 37 in the two games. The Torontonians were beaten 123 to 19 on Thursday and 100 to 18 on Saturday. And in the game Saturday the Grads played without the services of their captain and star guard, Elsie Bessie. What a team! Coach Percy Page has under his wing!

We wonder how The Toronto Telegram feels now. The eastern daily carried the following statement recently: "The eastern invaders would be a strong team and one that would not be beaten by any Pacifico score." The facts are that the team was not strong and that what happened to it was worse than happened to the Idaho invaders. The Pacifico girls were defeated by a aggregate score of 185 to 42. They lost their two games by counts of 83 to 20 and 113 to 22. They at least kept the total score against them below the 200-point mark and that was more than the eastern Canada players could accomplish.

Many teams that have written quite a few illustrious chapters of basketball history have been assembled by Page since the now far-off days of 1922 when he invaded London, Ont., and came back with his first Canadian championship but it is very doubtful if as any time he has had a better balanced squad than that now wearing the black and gold uniforms. The Johnsons, the Smiths, the Duncans and the Macraes left a trail of victory records in their path in their heyday, but there is apt to be considerably more wreckage lying around before the members of the present team withdraw from active competition.

Regina Roughriders appear headed towards another Western Canada football championship. Al Ritchie's famous club blasted Winnipeg, St. John's, Manitoba champions, out of the picture on Saturday and all that remains between them and another title is the Calgary Altamont-Township title holders, who swept to victory over the Vancouver Athletic Club, B.C. representatives, on Saturday. On their season's play and their conquest of victory over St. John's the Roughriders, as they are truly named, are not expected to experience a great deal of trouble hurdling Calgary.

Desmond Grubb, former Victoria boy, continues to aid the Regina team in no small way. Grubb scored a touchdown against Winnipeg Saturday and helped the Roughriders with some useful kicking. Grubb is considered one of the most consistent yard gainers on the prairie team's backfield. He is very tricky in the broken field.

In the east the Montreal Winged Wheelers clinched the Interprovincial title, as expected, terminating the reign of the Hamilton Tigers. The true significance of the victory of the Wheelers is the triumph of the new "open" football code as exemplified by the forward pass, introduced into eastern football this season, over the old line-bucking game of former years. In straight football Hamilton were just about unbeatable. True, they lost a game here and there, but it was usually through some "break" rather than through their own inefficiency. With the new aerial threat opening up contests an aggregation of line-plugging lunkies are not nearly as formidable as they used to be.

The Wheelers are claimed by Hamilton to be a one-man team built around the former Syracuse student, Warren Stevens, whose forward passing, on the run, is described as brilliant. Montreal scribes claim this is an exaggeration and wish the world to know they have an all-star outfit and that Perry, who is on the receiving end of most of Stevens' hoists, and the rest of the outfit, are just as important cogs in the machine as the all-American recruit, who himself is originally a Montreal product. It is more than likely that the Wheelers and Roughriders will meet in the Canadian final. It would be a great series as the Regina club is famed for its use of the aerial attack.

Football Game At Los Angeles Drew Gate of $280,000

Los Angeles, Nov. 10.—Setting a new high mark for Pacific Coast football, 29,000 persons paid approximately $280,000 to witness the Stanford University of Southern California game at the Olympic Stadium here last Saturday. The figure also tops the list for grid games over the nation so far this season.

Carnera Will Pay $1,350 Penalty To Get Chicago Bout

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Primo Carnera, Italy's biggest heavyweight, was due in Chicago to-day to pay a fine and begin training for his ten-round bout with King Levinsky, the former fish hooker, in the Chicago Stadium November 18. ### BAER TAKES VERDICT IN RISKY BOUT California Heavyweight Evens Score Against Trial Horse From Cleveland

Fighters and 15,000 Spectators Drenched By Rain at San Francisco Fracas

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—In a slam bang, one-sided battle, Max Baer, Livermore heavyweight, yesterday evening evened his score against Johnny Risco, veteran Cleveland, by taking a ten-round decision at Seals Stadium here. The bout was fought in a heavy rain, which drenched the ring and some 15,000 spectators who attended.

Risco took a decision over Baer in Cleveland several months ago. The Cleveland boxer aggressively, winning the first round. Baer wound up in the second session, landing a hard right to the jaw, and continued to force the battle. The Californian took the succeeding three rounds.

The sixth was a fairly even session, as Risco pepped up, and they traded blows steadily, but in the seventh Max bored in to win that session as well as the eighth.

As they came out for the ninth round, the rain increased, and each slipped several times. Baer went to his knees, while Risco piled on the ropes. A spurt for Risco in the tenth was battered down by Baer with a terrific body attack and they were pointing each other steadily when the bell closed the fight.

Baer weighed 204 pounds and Risco 195.

Major Golf Fault Spreading Elbows

By SOL METZGER

HELEN HICKS, ALBANY, N.Y., is spreading elbows during swing.

Arthur Goss, pro at the Everglades Club, Palm Beach, points out an interesting fact concerning the golf swing. "Watch Helen Hicks' elbows," he said to me. "That's the secret of the new women's champion's power and accuracy."

Whereupon Goss explained that one of the major golf faults is spreading the elbows. Arms should be made to work in unison; that is, they should be swung together. In order to accomplish this, the elbow joints must not pull apart throughout the swing further than the distance between them at address. To-morrow—the elbows at the top of the swing.

VICTORIA WOMEN PLAYERS FARED EXCEPTIONALLY WELL in the rankings, securing four of the nine positions. Helen Campbell was placed number six, with Mrs. J. C. Edwards eighth. Three Victorians were included in the men's list with Don Campbell third, J. C. Edwards fourth, and D. M. Gordon fifth. The complete list of rankings follows:

- WOMEN
Marjorie Leeming, Victoria.
Mary Campbell, Victoria.
Mrs. Haggart, Vancouver.
Mrs. Ross, Vancouver.
Vera O'Shea, Vancouver.
Helen Campbell, Victoria.
Marie McNab, Jericho.
Mrs. Edwards, Victoria.
Muriel Munro, Vancouver.
- MEN
T. O. Ryall, Jericho.
J. E. Brawn, Vancouver.
J. D. D. Campbell, Victoria.
J. C. Edwards, Victoria.
D. M. Gordon, Victoria.
G. Williams, Vancouver.
H. Candlish, Jericho.
G. Yoshi, Nippon.
G. Shields, C.N.R. Vancouver.
D. Cameron, Jericho.

HOW SHE WON HER PLACE
Marjorie Leeming won her place at the top of the list through her fine play in the Canadian championships at Vancouver and the British Columbia title event at Victoria. In the former she won her way to the finals only to be beaten by Edith Cross, San Francisco star. In the semi-finals of the Canadian, Miss Leeming turned back Olive Wade, defending Canadian titleholder. In the British Columbia tournament here Marjorie was beaten in the semi-finals by Miss Wade, who in turn lost out in the final to Miss Cross.

Tod Morgan And Pachio Will Meet

Los Angeles, Nov. 10.—Bobby Pachio, Yuma, Ariz., Mexican, who holds the California lightweight championship, to-night fights Tod Morgan, Los Angeles, former world junior lightweight title holder, but the state crown will not be at stake, as the pair will enter the ring at 137 pounds. The bout is booked for ten rounds.

An effort will be made to get the winner a match here with Al Singer, Milwaukee, or Jack (Kid) Berg, former junior welter champion from England.

LES PATRICK IS CONFIDENT Veteran Manager of New York Rangers Expects Fine Season in N.H.L.

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 10.—Ready and eager for the whistle that will launch them on their sixth season in the National Hockey League, New York Rangers will wind up their preliminary training campaign to-day at the West Springfield Arena. To-night the blue shirted will train for Montreal where, Thursday evening, they are to face the world's champion Canadians in the opening tussle of the 1931-32 schedule.

It is a confident troupe that Manager Lester Patrick will chaperon to the Canadian metropolis. On "paper" the current Ranger squad appears to be one of the strongest to ever depart in blue shirt regalia, and it is not without reason that the "silver fox" is looking forward so confidently and optimistically to the coming campaign. With three well-balanced forward lines, an array of high-calibre defencemen and a goalkeeper who is ranked with the best in professional hockey, the Rangers are indeed entitled to view the future with keen expectations.

With Ottawa Senators and Philadelphia Quakers dropped from the circuit, and all of the remaining aggregations strengthened materially, the scramble for the historic Stanley Cup promises to be a veritable free-for-all, with no one team appearing like a stand-out at this stage. All eight clubs are starting the campaign on even terms, and any one of them appears to be strong enough to annex the title.

Chicago Hawks One Of Most Dangerous Teams This Season

Team Which Surprised National Hockey League Fans Last Season Will Be Practically Intact With Two New Additions; Paul Thompson Secured From Rangers in Trade for Art Somers and Jerry Lowery Are New Players; Hawks Look Like Real Threat; Montreal Maroons Will Trot Out Powerful Squad Under New Manager

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Chicago's Black Hawks stand out as one of the real threats of the 1931-32 National Hockey League wars. The entire class of the team, which surprised the world of hockey last season by coming within one game of capturing the Stanley Cup series, will be back for action with two noteworthy additions that label the squad as one of the most dangerous in the race.

Paul Thompson, obtained from New York Rangers in a trade for Art Somers and Jerry Lowery, secured from Philadelphia, are the additions. Both will work in the forward lines and should give the Hawk offence more and smoother power.

Except for a few promising rookies, the rest of the Chicago squad will be the same as last season. Charlie Gardiner will be back as goalie while the ten veteran forwards will be split into three lines with Doc Romnes alternating at right wing on each line.

FORWARD LINES

No other team in hockey undergoes a more rigorous training schedule year after year than do the Hawks and this season is no exception. Spurred on by increased salaries for their showing last season, they started their drills fully ten days ahead of any squad in the league with a full-time physical trainer in charge.

"Training accounts for at least sixty per cent of the success of a hockey team," explained Coach Fred McLaughlin in discussing the strenuous drills of his team. "It was the secret of our unusual success with a comparatively inexperienced team last season. Our boys were trained perfectly at the start of the campaign and took a lead that carried them into the thick of the battle from start to finish."

Montreal, Nov. 10.—A cloud of uncertainty has surrounded Montreal since the Hawks' victory over the Canadiens last year in the National Hockey League race. But Maroons have the man-power, they have looked strong and impressive in their work here, and under a new manager they may get somewhere.

Sprague Cleghorn, a veteran of many years of big league hockey and now a coach, has been named manager with Providence Reds, of the Canadian-American League, will pilot Maroons this year.

Principal doubts during the training season concerned what players would be shipped to the Montreal farm-team at Windsor, Ont., but there also was considerable uncertainty as to whether Lionel Conacher, veteran defence star, would play this year. "The Big Train" signed a professional wrestling contract but continued to work out with the team. Even if Conacher is missing there will be plenty of good defence material.

ADDED STARDUST
Archie Wilcox and Johnnie Gallagher played sound hockey last year, and the break-up of the Ottawa and Philadelphia teams brought two added starters, Harold Starr, husky Ottawa youngster, and D'Arcy Coulson, former Ottawa amateur, who played with Quakers.

Dave Kerr guarded the Maroons' nets in good style last year, but has to fight it out this season with Norman Smith, another smart young player.

Nelson Stewart, veteran sharpshooter, again has the inside track on the first string centre berth, although his inclination to hold out yesterday caused a few worries. Baldy Northcott and Paul Haynes are in line for the relief centre ice jobs.

Babe Siebert, regular left winger, was relieved last year by Dave Trotter. Lorne Duguid, a recruit from Windsor Bulldogs, is another good left wing prospect. At right wing, Reginald "Hooley" Smith is an established star. Jimmy Ward is one of the best relief men around the league, and Earl Robinson, another graduate of the Windsor school, is also right on the job.

The squad also includes Earl and Des Roche and Al Huggins, who appear the most likely candidates for the trip to Windsor. Earl stayed with Maroons last year, but the others were farmed out. The Bulldogs squad has a number of good players, many of them veterans of the big league with the Maroons, who may be called in if the going is rough.

DEMPSEY TO CONFER WITH GARDEN HEAD

Former Heavyweight Champion Will Talk Comeback With Jimmy Johnston

May Get "Shot" in Miami Next February; Bout With Sharkey Possible

New York, Nov. 10.—Jack Dempsey's flinty future probably will be settled definitely when the old Manassa mauler comes here next month for a conference with Jimmy Johnston, head of Madison Square Garden's boxing department.

If Dempsey, now thirty-six years old, decides that his battling career has put him in condition for another comeback, Johnston is prepared to offer him two matches which might lead to a "shot" at Max Schmeling and the heavyweight championship.

Johnston said the garden would not offer Jack any guarantee, but an adequate share of the receipts for a bout in February at Miami, Fla., against an opponent drawn from a list of four leading heavyweights—Tommy Loughran, Johnny Risko, Paulino Uzcudun and Tom Heeney.

MATCH WITH SHARKEY
If Dempsey makes a good showing in the south, Johnston is prepared to match him against Jack Sharkey here in May or June, although there is some doubt whether Sharkey would accept such a match. Sharkey already feels that by his showing against Carners he is entitled to meet Schmeling in a title bout in September.

Granting that the Sharkey-Dempsey match could be made, and a resulting Dempsey victory, the former titleholder would be paired off against Schmeling in a title bout in September.

Thus Johnston has outlined his plans for Dempsey, but nothing definite can come of them until Dempsey arrives here for his conference, probably in mid-December.

Anscomb Cup Game And Army Match Are Big Attractions

All-star Soccer Elevens From Saturday and Wednesday Leagues Meet at Royal Athletic Park at 1.15 o'clock in Cup Fixture; Will Be Followed by Senior Rugby Tilt Between Canadian Scottish and Gunners; One Other Senior Rugby Clash

With two strong elevens selected everything is set for the Anscomb Cup football match to-morrow afternoon at the Royal Athletic Park. The game is the first of a best two-out-of-three series between "rep" teams from the Saturday and Wednesday Leagues. At a meeting of the Wednesday League executive yesterday evening the mid-weekers picked a formidable eleven to meet the all-stars from the first division. The trophy is at present held by the Saturday League. The match will get under way at 1.15 o'clock.

The Wednesday League team will be under the management of Bert Major, Shrimpton, veteran goalie of the Hudson's Bay. The team is strong in all departments and should give a good account of itself. The full-backs will be Sam MacKenzie, Hudson's Bay, and Alex Whyte, Navy veteran. On the half-back line will be Roberts, Navy; Paddy Scanlon, Garrison, and Oakman, Hudson's Bay.

COAST LEAGUE
Nanaimo City, St. Andrew's, St. Saviour's and Westminster Royals.

VANCOUVER DISTRICT LEAGUE
First Division — B.C. Telephone, Firemen, Kerrisdale Merchants and North Shore United.

Second Division — Capilano, Chinese Students, Point Grey United, Regatta, Renfrew Argyle, Sons of England and South Hill Army and Navy.

Third Division — Cowan-Dodson, C.P.R. Sons of Scotland, South Burnaby, South Hill Young Liberals, Victoria and Vikings.

VICTORIA LEAGUE
Equilmont, Jokers, Victoria City and Saanich Thistles.

TOWNSEND WINS EASY DECISION
Hands Andy Saviola Terrible Beating in Ten-round Bout at New York

New York, Nov. 10.—Billy Townsend, Vancouver welterweight contender, pounded out an easy ten-round decision over Andy Saviola, New York, at the St. Nicholas Arena yesterday evening.

Saviola, taking the worst beating of his career, was able to win only one round—the eighth. In all the others he absorbed a terrific trouncing from the hard-hitting Canadian. Saviola went down only once, for no count in the fourth round, but several times he was on the verge of a knockout as Townsend plastered him with accurate rights and lefts to the chin.

Townsend opened up in the first round and with a rain of rights to the chin had Saviola hanging on. Again in the second Saviola was almost on the verge of a knockout but weathered a storm of rights and lefts to the stomach and chin.

The third was also the Vancouver welter by a good margin, but the fourth round produced some slow milling and the New Yorker came back in the fifth with a great rally. He belted Townsend all about the ring with hard swings to the stomach which the Vancouver boy found little liking for and promptly retreated.

In the sixth, however, Townsend regained the upper hand and with a hard two-fisted attack again had Saviola in distress. The New Yorker this time being on the receiving end of a stream of blows to the stomach.

Confidence prevailed in both rugby camps as officials of the Fifth Brigade and Canadian Scottish prepared for the big army game which will open the Senior English League at the Royal Athletic Park to-morrow, immediately following the Anscomb Cup soccer fixture. Planned as a Remembrance Day charity fixture the game promises to be full of thrills from start to finish as the Gunners, new entry in the loop, try to stop the march of the Scots, city champions and co-holders of the provincial title. Bands will play, novelty stunts will enliven the preliminaries and some of the best men ever developed on local rugby fields will swing into action as the curtain rises on the senior schedule.

Immediately preceding the match, the Fifth Brigade and Canadian Scottish bands will lead their respective squads on to the field. They will form in line and await the arrival of a pony cart, filled with brightly colored hydrogen balloons, which will be set on to the field by a Highlander and Gunner in full uniform. As a Fifth Brigade bugler sounds the Last Post, captains of the different teams will step forward and release the balloons, which will rise to the air, lifting a poppy wreath from the cart.

Major Anscomb will kick-off the ball and the teams will be brought into position for the fray.

HAVE THIRTEEN "REP" MEN
The Scottish, clad in their red jerseys with the blue band and thistle, will send a team to the field which will include thirteen former "rep" team men.

Jackie Bryden will play fullback, while the three-quarter line, strengthened by the addition of two new men, will include Chuck Rutan, Reg Wemman, Brian Hunnings and Pete Turgoose, one of the best lines that has ever carried the regiment's colors.

Jackie Bellis, skipper of the Victoria Capitols, has been given the stand-off half's job, while Ted Robinson will play scrum half.

George Warnock, team captain, Geoff Percy, Bunny Cox, Bob Engleason, Joe McAllister, Bert Buller, Dan Dowell, Campbell Hunter and Davis are possibilities for the scrum.

Although it is difficult to estimate the strength of the Gunners, on paper the Scottish appear to have a decided edge. It will be a battle between an old-established pack, which knows its strength and a fifteen including several comparatively inexperienced players.

The Gunners, however, have shown a keen fighting spirit in the intermediate division and have been working out vigorously under the guiding hand of Coach Doug Roberts. They should be able to make the game exceptionally interesting for the Highlanders.

While they are clashing at the Royal Athletic, Oak Bay Wanderers and the James Bay Athletic Association squad will meet in the other senior league opener at Oak Bay Park.

RUGBY FINALS ON TO-MORROW
Calgary and Saskatchewan Champs Will Decide Senior and Junior Crowns

Calgary, Nov. 10.—Calgary today sent two rugby teams into the sister province of Saskatchewan in search of western championships which will be decided in Regina and Moose Jaw to-morrow.

Altomah-Tigers, senior champions of Alberta and victors over Vancouver Athletic club in the B.C.-Alberta two-game semi-final, left this afternoon for Regina, where they will tackle Roughriders for the senior title of Western Canada. The Altomahs, although crippled, are out to win an honor achieved only once before—in 1911.

The other team to leave the foothills for the prairies entrained for Regina yesterday. They were the Altomah junior champions of Alberta, who received a bye into the final, and will meet the Maroons of the Mill City, who defeated Winnipeg Native Sons last Saturday by a score of 4 to 1. Both games will be sudden death fixtures.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE—

BURKE AND VON ELM TO PLAY AT OAK BAY LINKS IN 36-HOLE GOLF MATCH

Billie Burke, holder of the United States open golf championship, and George Von Elm, famous "business man golfer" from Detroit, will play in Victoria in a thirty-six-hole exhibition match against Phil Taylor, pro at the Victoria Golf Club, and Dave Black, well-known Vancouver pro. The match will be played at the Victoria Golf Club, and although the exact date has not been determined, Taylor stated today he expected it would be in about ten days.

Burke and Von Elm are at present in Los Angeles and will leave in a few days on a tour of the Pacific Coast. Von Elm was runner-up to Burke in the U.S. open, being beaten after a grueling play-off.

Montreal's Galloping Ghost

When Gordie Perry, star backfielder with the Montreal Winged Wheelers in the Interprovincial League, gets going, it takes a brick wall to stop him. Not in many a moon has Montreal turned out such a versatile rugby star. He can kick, drop kick, run, plunge, tackle and is a smart quarter when the occasion arises. He looks and acts like a second edition of Harry Ball. The American forward pass tosser par excellence, centres the whole Montreal attack, and you can take it from me it is some attack, for this boy Stevens can heave the pigskin fifty yards with only a yawn, and he could knock a flea off a bee ear at that distance, too. Before many more seasons are over, this man Perry is going to be ranked among the greatest stars of the Canadian gridiron. He has everything that a good football player needs. The Wheelers this year look like the team to beat for the Canadian championship.

SLINGERS IN FINE WIN OVER Y.M.C.A. FIVE

Hang Up 23 to 17 Win in Intermediate "A" Hoop Clash; Green Mill Victors

Playing snappy basketball, Slingers defeated the fast-stepping Y.M.C.A. Intermediate "A" team, 23 to 17, at the Centennial gymnasium in a Victoria and District Basketball League game. This win puts Slingers in a great position to win their division. The Beavers, who are at present out in front, will have to step on it to down the Saanich quintette in their next meeting.

In the other game played, the Green Mill bested the Navy in a senior "C" men's game, 34 to 21. This victory places the Green Mill a half game ahead of the fast B.A.A. team.

Taking a 12 to 10 lead in the opening half, Slingers were never headed. The winners played nice basketball, working the ball in close to the hoop for easy shots with George Robinson, Kersey, Macmurech and Johnston taking turns at the scoring.

The teams and individual scorers follow:
Slingers — Robertson (6), Johnston (4), Gibson, Kersey (6), Mennies (2), Sutton and Macmurech (5).
Y.M.C.A. — Field, Harding (4), Bradley (6), Gaddel (2), Gelling, Martin (5), Riddle and Thompson.

With Bill Hill collecting fifteen points for his evening's work, the Green Mill easily downed the Navy. The lunch counter men collected a lead of 17 to 10 in the first half and increased it steadily throughout the second half.

Hill, with fifteen points, was the leading scorer, while MacDonald and Barker collected six apiece for the losers.

The teams and individual scorers follow:
Green Mill — Jones (3), Smith (3), Barber (4), Williams (4), Hill (15), Pettierow (2), and Woods (2).
Navy — MacDonald (6), Barker (6), Gervais (3), Robinson (4), McQuaig, Dwyer and Freeman (2).

To-night's exhibition fixtures at the Memorial Hall follow:
8.15 (women)—Duncan vs. Standard Laundry.
8.00 (men)—Duncan senior men vs. Buys.

Efforts Being Made To Reorganize New Prairie Hockey Loop

Joe Ganguish, Owner of the Former Saskatoon Sheiks, Behind Move to Form Pro Loop Composing Teams From Saskatoon, Regina, Edmonton and Calgary; Rosie Helmer, Calgary Mogul, Says He Is Not Interested

Saskatoon, Sask., Nov. 10.—Visions of the good old hockey days of the Western Canada League hung over the west-to-day as rumors spread of a possible revival of the four-team prairie circuit. First definite report came from Joe Ganguish, owner of the Saskatoon Sheiks, when George Hainsworth was the goalie and Bill and Bun Cook roamed the forward line. Ganguish said he would enter a team at once.

Ganguish was quoted as saying that he had definite assurance from Rosie Helmer, Calgary and "Duke" Keats of Edmonton that the Alberta cities were ready to join up in a prairie pro circuit. But at Calgary, Helmer answered the report by saying he had not heard of it and was not interested. Keats, centre-ice stick-handling marvel of the old Edmonton Eskimos, could not be reached immediately, but he is known to be anxious to line up a pro team at the Alberta capital.

CHAMP IS QUIET
Wee Champ, Regina amateur and pro hockey mogul, was not quoted on the question, although Ganguish said that only Champ's answer was needed to make the four-team group a certainty. It is four years since the old western Canada pro circuit was in operation, but the existent over-supply of hockey-ists was believed to be substantial basis for the rumors of a prairie loop revival. Definite decision is expected to be forthcoming within a few days.

Regina, Nov. 10.—Commenting on the report of plan to form another prairie pro hockey loop, W. W. (Wee) Champ stated here Monday that such a league was not the year for formation of such a league.

Champ was in receipt of a phone call from Gordon "Duke" Keats of Edmonton Sunday night in regard to the entering of a team in Regina, should other cities see their way clear to operate, but told the Edmonton star that though hockey players could be hired at the lowest figures in history he did not think that the game would meet with such a wide public appeal.

AMATEURS POPULAR
In Regina the amateur game dominates the interest of the fan at the present time and professional hockey would have to buck the strong support given the amateur game here, as well as the paying customers almost double the size it costs them to see amateur hockey.

Champ is also of the opinion that even if Regina enters a pro hockey team the Regina pros would be incapable of playing any better hockey than the Regina Aces, favorites to cop the "Big Six" amateur title of Saskatchewan.

NEW MEASURES FORESHADOWED BY MACDONALD
British Premier Gives Address at Lord Mayor's Banquet in London

London, Nov. 10.—Speaking at the annual Lord Mayor's banquet here yesterday evening, Premier MacDonald announced:

(1) The National Government intends taking steps to stabilize the pound sterling on a definite basis, which will make it independent of speculative movements or day-by-day transactions.

(2) The government proposes to do its utmost to assure success for the disarmament conference to be held in Geneva next February.

(3) In view of the present position of Germany in relation to the rest of the world, it must have a speedy and complete overhauling and definite agreements should be reached which are both tolerable and practical.

"For this, no time is to be lost," the Prime Minister proceeded, his voice touching a graver note. A series of piecemeal, ephemeral compromises of purely temporary nature will not meet the circumstances. A comprehensive and firm settlement is now required. All states must make concessions for the simple reason that if they do not, the world will go from bad to worse until collapse and revolution may be the only way out.

There were hopeful signs of a grade revival, proceeded Mr. MacDonald. Unemployment figures in Great Britain were down. But the government was faced with two great problems, and "my colleagues and I mean to solve budget and the nation must balance budget and the nation must balance its trade."

"The government must steer between a Scylla of panic measures and a Charybdis of dilatory policy, and it has the right to ask you and the nation to give it time to mature its plans so the work to which it sets its hand will be thoroughly effective. I appeal for your help. I appeal for your generosity. . . . We are facing what really amounts to a revolution in conditions which arose from and since the war. . . . We face a world unhappy and unsettled, calling for the coolest and most commanding mind to pacify it and get it back in order."

MANDELL JOINS RETIRED LIST

Former Lightweight Champion Quits Ring; Has Purse Paid For Lenny Fight

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Sammy Mandell, once lightweight champion of the world, is through with the ring. Mandell announced his retirement yesterday after the Illinois State Athletic Commission waived its rule and ordered his purse of $12,500 paid after it had been held up pending review of his bout with Ralph Lenny, Union City, N.J., here last Wednesday.

The bout, a scheduled ten round, was stopped in the eighth by the referee, who declared it no contest. General John V. Clinin, chairman of the commission and president of the National Boxing Association, said Mandell's purse was paid only because of his previous record. He said Mandell had been placed on the retired list and the check of Rockford agreed to hang up his gloves after Clinin urged him to quit.

EARLIER LAMBING BEING PRACTICED

A better market and more money for early lambs is expected by sheepmen of the Interior. The District Agriculturist at Grand Forks has reported to the Department of Agriculture that the 1923 crop of lambs in his district will be coming about March 24. The sheepmen will realize a better market and more money for their early lambs. Reports from other districts state that sheepmen are taking more care of lambs than in the past.

AT THE THEATRES

"Robin Hood" Will Be Colorful Production By Victoria Talent

Costumes and Scenery Being Designed For Light Opera at Royal November 27 and 28

There will be much delightful color and pageantry to "Robin Hood," de Koven's popular light opera which will be presented at the Royal Victoria Theatre by the Victoria Operatic Society on Friday and Saturday evenings, November 27 and 28. There is a great deal of interest centered around the coming production, for all performing in it are Victorians, many of them well-known to lovers of music and dramatic art.

The leading roles are in capable hands, and the principals promise to give finished performances. Members of the chorus are now practicing twice a week in order to give a colorful background to the solo parts. It is realized that no matter how good is the work of the principals, it falls rather by the wayside unless the chorus work is of excellence. The chorus numbers to "Robin Hood" are exceptionally fine and all are popular airs. The principals' numbers are composed of luring duets and trios, a quintette and a rousing sextet that verges almost on grand opera.

The costumes and scenery are now being prepared, and when the curtain ascends on the first performance, the audience is promised a rare treat in color blending. The costumes are being designed after the style of the period, and the ladies will appear in ruffled gowns and laces of all colors, while the gentlemen will be in colorful smocks, tight and jaunty Robin Hood cock hats. There will be three acts, and for each the scenery is being especially prepared.

DOMINION THEATRE

James Dunn, who will be seen as Sally Ellers' perplexed young husband in "Bad Girl," the Dominion Theatre to-day, is the newest recruit to Hollywood's eligible list of young bachelors.

He is charming, gallant, and extremely affable, as his characterization in the picture so clearly proves, all of which made him instantly popular in the film capital. "I've always thought I'd play around a bit before I settle down for good," Dunn recently remarked. "But if invitations keep pouring in as fast as they have this fine week I've been in Hollywood, I'm likely to change my mind."

DUMBELLS REVIVE MEMORIES AND MELODIES OF WAR

Plunkett Co. on Thirteenth Tour Greeted With Fresh Enthusiasm

Men Again Take Girls' Part in Show; Brilliant Orchestra Is Feature

On the eve of national Remembrance Day, Captain M. W. Plunkett has brought back to Victoria his Dumbells company, recalling memories and melodies of war-time days in France which the Plunketts cheered up the Canadian boys with their concerts and entertainments, behind the lines.

This is the thirteenth annual tour across Canada of the Dumbells and this new show of theirs was greeted with the customary burst of fresh enthusiasm which the Royal Victoria Theatre last evening, where it opened before a good house for a three-day run.

The show gets better as it goes on, with the outstanding acts and musical numbers in the second half. This second half is also featured by the Dumbells concert jazz orchestra, which plays its numbers brilliantly and includes such performers as Gene Fritzley, a popular radio star, Bill Handoff, a clever violinist, Larry Fagan, who originally organized the orchestra, and the earlier Dumbells show, whose playing of the traps and xylophone is a show in itself to watch.

Laurie Thompson, the N.B.C. radio star, Ray Wagner, George Bernstein, Douglas Pierce, Sam Fink, Clair Eddie and Norman Redhead.

RED AND SCOTTY FUNNY AS EVER

All through the production there is plenty of high horse play and burlesque on which Red Newman and Scotty Morrison have built their entertainment popularity across the country.

This year the Dumbells have reverted to the original policy of the entertainment troupe in France of having no girls, all the feminine roles being taken by female impersonators.

Outstanding as such in this country are Ross Hamilton, the famous creator of "Marjorie," and Glen Allen, who was previously with the Dumbells but has been in Europe for the last three seasons.

CLEVER "GIRLS"

How these two boys do know how to wear their girlish clothes! And such marvelous creations as they carry in their troupers' wardrobe! Ross Hamilton's great triumph of the evening was his presentation of Marjorie as a bride and singing "The Bells of St. Mary's." Marjorie is somewhat more matronly than in her slimmer days of a few years ago, but she was a vision to marvel at as she came down the altar steps in the latest Parisian wedding creation. Her singing last evening was a little off color and Captain Plunkett between acts apologized for it as Ross Hamilton was too apparently suffering from a severe cold.

Glenn Allen scintillated in his dancing. The female form he presents is slim, sinuous and vigorous—the male impersonation of the snappy flapper. Curly Nixon was his dancing partner.

Don Romaine has become the company's blackface specialist, and in this production he presents a Madame Queen number, with some nigger comedy and music. He dances with a quick change from a gorgeous array of feathers and colors to face the audience as a humble, old, hobbling southern plantation negro. Then amid subdued lights and a lighted background of the Mississippi, he bursts into the best vocal number of the evening—his rich baritone singing of "Chloe."

A very clever number was the slow motion dance presented by Scotty Morrison and Curly Nixon, in which they repeated their normally fast dance steps and motions as they would appear slowed up on the screen.

Joe Carr was put in the spotlight by his skill at telling and putting over dialect stories.

"OLD PAL" REVIVED

For the reading of Robert Service's "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," the company burlesques the action of the lines, with all the characters set in a northern barroom, along with "The Lady known as Lou."

Pay Compton, who made such brilliant success in the great motion picture classic, "Tell England," has now, through the good offices of British International Pictures Limited, been definitely claimed from the stage for picture-goers. Miss Compton is looked upon as the most popular English comedy actress of the day. Possessed of a beautiful personality, combined with acting ability and a voice that lends itself perfectly to talking pictures, it is small wonder that she has become so great a public favorite.

Among Miss Compton's stage successes has been a series of leading parts in Barrie plays, such as "Peter Pan," "Quality Street," and "Mary Rose." Her remarkable talent for portraying such contrasting roles as Ophelia in "Hamlet" and Dick Whittington.

ton in the recent pantomime at Manchester, declare her to be the ideal "talkie" actress.

Her latest picture, "Uneasy Virtue," which is now showing at the Capitol Theatre, is undoubtedly her greatest success.

COLISEUM THEATRE

William Wellman, the young man, who caused a stir in the picture world by his direction of "Wings," has since had many successes to his credit and the latest is "The Star Witness," the Warner Bros. production featuring Charles (Chic) Sale and Walter Huston, at the Coliseum Theatre to-day. Mr. Wellman was a World War ace, serving with the Lafayette Escadrille with the French before our entry into the war. He is cast as one of the crew of a notorious clipper ship on which many exciting things happen. Richard Cromwell, Noah Beery and Sally Blane are featured.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE

Ordered to marry the girl he loves under penalty of being shot might seem a satisfactory ending to a romance, but it is only one of the many delightful complications Charles Farrell undergoes in his newest Fox Movie-tone vehicle, "The Princess and the Plumber," now being shown at the Playhouse Theatre. Maureen O'Sullivan and H. B. Warner are the other stars of the picture, which was directed by Alexander Korda.

COLUMBIA THEATRE

Willard Robertson has touched at every port in Central and South America while acting in the capacity of able seaman on a windjammer. In "Shanghaied Love," the Columbia picture showing to-day at the Columbia Theatre, he again takes up his old profession, for he is cast as one of the crew of a notorious clipper ship on which many exciting things happen. Richard Cromwell, Noah Beery and Sally Blane are featured.

POOR GRADE BEEF DRAGS PRICE DOWN

The British Columbia Livestock Exchange reports a fall in the price of cattle. Compared with last week's quotations best steers are 25 cents lower, making the choice heavyweight butchers worth 5 cents. The excessive supply of low grade beef on the market is one cause of prevailing low values.

There has been no change in hog values this week. Bacon have held steady at 6 cents, with lights and feeders at the same price. Receipts have all cleaned up at the week-end and a few arrivals are in sight.

The lamb market held steady all week under heavy receipts, with best kinds bringing from $6.25 to $6.50. The week-end showed a good clean-up and prospects for a steady market, with few arrivals in sight.
